KOWLOON BAY DEVELOPMENT

Land For Light Industry Reserved

An area of about 320 acres has been reclaimed in Kowloon Bay as part of the Kowloon Bay Development Scheme.

The land is intended for light industrial and storage purposes. It will also be used for a sewage treatment plant, institutional and community facilities, open spaces and commercial purposes.

Extensive drainage and nullah works will also be carried out in the area as part of the development of the air cargo complex at Kai Tak and the airport tunnel road.

The works to be carried out include the extension of the Kai Tak Nullah and the construction of drains.

The cost of the extension works is estimated at $28.3 million.

OPENING OF PEAK POST OFFICE

Mr. M. Addi, the Postmaster General, will open a new post office in the Upper Peak Tram Terminal Building on Wednesday (January 31).

The Peak Post Office will deal with all kinds of post office business, except the acceptance of insured letters and boxes.

Two stamp machines have been installed so that 10-cent and 50-cent stamps will be available on a 24-hour basis.

The business hours will be from 9.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. and 2.15 p.m. to 5.00 p.m. on weekdays, and from 9.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. on Saturday.

A spokesman for the Post Office said: "The opening of the Peak Post Office is a further stage in the development programme of the Post Office and should be of considerable benefit to the residents in the Peak area."

The Peak Post Office will bring the total number of post offices to 64, including a mobile post office in the New Territories.

Note to Editors: You are invited to send a reporter and/or photographer to cover the opening of the new post office in the Upper Peak Tram Terminal Building at 10.00 a.m. on Wednesday.
