PROCLAMATION

No. 3.

Officer Administering
the Government.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY ROBERT BROWN BLACK, Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Officer Administering the Government of the Colony of Hong Kong and its Dependencies and Vice-Admiral of the same.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (1) of section 735 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, (hereinafter called "the Act") that the legislature of the Colony may by Ordinance, confirmed by Her Majesty in Council, repeal, wholly or in part, any provisions of the Act (other than those of the Third Part thereof which relate to emigrant ships), relating to ships registered in the Colony;

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by the said subsection that any such Ordinance shall not take effect until the approval of Her Majesty has been proclaimed in the Colony, or until such time thereafter as may be fixed by the Ordinance for the purpose;

AND WHEREAS the legislature of the Colony has by the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1953, (hereinafter called "the Ordinance") provided that certain provisions of the Act, (not being provisions of the Third Part thereof which relate to emigrant ships) relating to ships registered in the Colony shall be repealed;

AND WHEREAS it is provided by section 118 of the Ordinance that the Ordinance shall not come into operation unless and until the Governor notifies by proclamation that it is Her Majesty's pleasure not to disallow the Ordinance and thereafter the Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as the Governor shall by the same or any other proclamation appoint;

AND WHEREAS by the Merchant Shipping (Confirmation of Legislation) (Hong Kong) Order in Council, 1953, Her Majesty in Council has confirmed the Ordinance;

NOW THEREFORE, I, the said ROBERT BROWN BLACK, do hereby notify and proclaim that it is Her Majesty's pleasure to approve the Ordinance and not to disallow the same and I do further notify and proclaim that the Ordinance shall come into operation on the 30th day of October, 1953.

GIVEN under my hand and the Public Seal of the Colony of Hong Kong, this 23rd day of October, 1953.

Published by His Excellency's Command,

Robert Brown Black

Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

2. (1) In the case of a territory in which at the material time Defence Regulations are in force, the power to apprehend, try and punish a person under the preceding Article shall be exercisable as if offences against the said Regulation forty-six were offences against those Regulations, and were punishable thereunder in accordance with any general provisions of those Regulations relating to the punishment of offences, other than offences for which a special penalty is provided.

(2) In the case of any territory not falling within the preceding paragraph,—

(a) the power to apprehend and try a person under the preceding Article shall be exercisable in accordance with any rules made in that behalf by the Governor of the territory; and

(b) the power to punish a person under that Article shall be exercisable as if at the material time Defence Regulations were in force in the territory and offences against the said Regulation forty-six were offences against those Regulations, and as if the penalties applicable thereunder to offences against the said Regulation forty-six were such as may appear to the court of trial to correspond most nearly to the penalties to which, on conviction in comparable proceedings, a person is liable in England for an offence against that Regulation.

(3) In this Article—

(a) the expression "the material time", in relation to the exercise of a power, means the time at which the power is to be exercised;

(b) the expression "the Governor",—

(i) in relation to the territories comprised in the Federation of Malaya, means the High Commissioner of the Federation, and includes any person for the time being administering the government of the federation;

(ii) in relation to the Zanzibar Protectorate, means the British Resident or the person lawfully discharging his functions;

(iii) in relation to any other territory, includes any person administering the government of the territory; and

(iv) in relation to any territory, includes any deputy to the person who is the Governor of the territory in accordance with the preceding heads of this subparagraph, to the extent that the deputy is authorized to act for that person; and

(c) the reference to conviction in comparable proceedings—

(i) if the proceedings before the court of trial are in the nature of summary proceedings, shall be construed as a reference to summary conviction, and

(ii) in any other case, shall be construed as a reference to conviction on indictment.

3. This Order shall have effect in relation to any dependencies of any of the territories specified in the Schedule to this Order, and in relation to the territorial waters (if any) adjacent to any such territory or to a dependency thereof, as it has effect in relation to that territory.

4. (1) The Defence Regulations (Reciprocal Enforcement) Order, 1940(d) (which provides for the reciprocal enforcement of Defence Regulations in the United Kingdom and in other territories in which Defence Regulations are for the time being in force by virtue of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939) shall not apply for the purposes of the apprehension, trial or punishment of any person, in any of the territories specified in the Schedule to this Order, for an offence against the said Regulation forty-six committed after the coming into operation of this Order.

(2) Subject to the preceding paragraph, nothing in this Order shall affect the operation of the said Order of 1940 in relation to any offence against Defence Regulations.

5. (1) This Order may be cited as the Control of Trade by Sea (Colonial Enforcement) Order, 1953.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the sixth day of August, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Explanatory Note.

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Regulation 46 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, authorizes the making of orders prohibiting British ships from proceeding to sea except under the authority of a licence. The Control of Trade by Sea (China and North Korea) Order, 1953, has been made under this Regulation.

The Defence Regulations (Reciprocal Enforcement) Order, 1940, provided for the reciprocal enforcement of Defence Regulations in the United Kingdom and in colonial territories where Defence Regulations were for the time being in force. A number of colonial territories, however, do not now have Defence Regulations.

The present Order provides that offenders against Regulation 46 may be apprehended, tried and punished in any of the territories specified in the Schedule to the Order.

MERCHANT SHIPPING

THE MERCHANT SHIPPING (CONFIRMATION OF LEGISLATION)
(HONG KONG) ORDER IN COUNCIL, 1953

Made	- - - - -	4th October, 1953
Laid before Parliament		6th October, 1953
Coming into Operation		9th October, 1953

At the Court at Balmoral, the 4th day of October, 1953

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1953(a), (hereinafter called "the Ordinance") the legislature of the Colony of Hong Kong has provided that certain provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894(b), (hereinafter called the "Act") (not being provisions of the Third Part of the Act that relate to emigrant ships) relating to ships registered in the said Colony shall be repealed but that the Ordinance shall not come into operation until such day as may be appointed as therein provided :

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that the Ordinance should be confirmed by Her Majesty :

(a) Ordinance No. 14 of 1953. (b) 57 & 58 Vict. c. 60.

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by subsection (1) of section seven hundred and thirty-five of the said Act, and all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows—

1. This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Confirmation of Legislation) (Hong Kong) Order in Council, 1953, and shall come into operation on the ninth day of October, 1953.

2. The Ordinance is hereby confirmed.

3. The Orders in Council made on the tenth day of August, 1903(c), and the twenty-eighth day of July, 1938(d), (which confirmed certain Ordinances passed by the legislature of the Colony of Hong Kong for the repeal of which provision is made by the Ordinance) shall be revoked with effect from the day on which the Ordinance shall come into operation.

W. G. AGNEW.

Explanatory Note.

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

By this Order the Queen in Council, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 735 (1) of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, confirms the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1953, of the Colony of Hong Kong, by which, inter alia, certain provisions of that Act relating to ships registered in the Colony are repealed.
