An Ordinance to amend the Vehicle and Road Traffic Ordinance, Chapter 220.

[28th January, 1955.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Vehicle and Road Short title.
Traffic (Amendment) Ordinance, 1955.

2. Section 5 of the Vehicle and Road Traffic Ordinance (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance) is repealed and replaced by the following section—

Repeal and replacement
of section 5.
(Cap. 220).

“Driving motor vehicles when under
5. (1) Any person who when driving or attempting to drive, or when in charge of a motor vehicle on a road or other public place is under the the influence of drink or drugs.

20 & 21
Geo. 5, c.43, s.15.

influence of drink or a drug to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle, shall be liable—

(a) on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months, and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars and to such imprisonment as aforesaid;

(b) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twelve months and a fine.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, unless the court or magistrate for special reasons thinks fit to order otherwise and without prejudice to the power of the court or magistrate to order a longer period of disqualification, be disqualified for a period of twelve months from the date of the conviction for holding or obtaining a licence to drive a motor vehicle."

Amendment
of section 7.

3. Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is amended by—

- (a) the deletion from the first line of subsection (1) of the brackets and number "(1)";
- (b) the deletion from the second line of subsection (1) of the comma after the number "4", and of the number "5";
- (c) the insertion after the number "6," in the second line of subsection (1) of the following—

"or under any regulation made under this Ordinance relating to the maximum speed at which motor vehicles may be driven"; and

An Ordinance to make provision for the establishment of a trust fund to be known as the Grantham Scholarships Fund, and for the due administration thereof, and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid.

[4th March, 1955.]

WHEREAS—

(1) The benefactors whose names together with the amounts of their respective subscriptions will be published in the manner provided by section 14 of this Ordinance and who are hereinafter referred to as the founders, wishing to commemorate the governorship of His Excellency Sir Alexander William George Herder Grantham, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, have raised by subscription the sum of $250,000 :

(2) In view of the interest taken by the said Sir Alexander Grantham in education, the founders wish to establish a scholarships fund for the promotion and encouragement of education in Hong Kong :

(3) The said Sir Alexander Grantham has signified his consent to the founders' wish that the said fund should be known as the Grantham Scholarships Fund:

(4) The Secretary for Chinese Affairs Incorporated has, with the approval of the Governor under section 7A of the Secretary for Chinese Affairs Incorporation Ordinance, consented to become trustee of the said fund:

(5) The founders have paid to the trustee the said sum of $250,000 to the intent that the same shall be dedicated in perpetuity for the promotion and encouragement of local education in the Colony in the manner hereinafter provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Grantham Scholarships Fund Ordinance, 1955.

Establishment of trust fund.

2. There is hereby established a trust fund to be known as the Grantham Scholarships Fund (hereinafter referred to as the fund) which shall consist of $250,000, being moneys paid over to the trustee by the founders; it shall also consist of any sums accumulated by way of interest thereon at the commencement of this Ordinance, and such other moneys as may, from time to time, be given to the fund.

The trustee.

3. The trustee shall hold the fund upon the trusts, and with and subject to the powers and provisions, hereinafter in this Ordinance contained.

Committee of management.

4. (1) The fund shall be managed by a committee consisting of—

- (a) the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, who shall be the chairman of the committee;

- (c) the senior Chinese Member of the Executive Council;
- (d) the Chairman for the time being of the Tung Wah Hospital;

(e) the Chairman for the time being of the Po Leung Kuk; and

(f) such other members not exceeding four as may be appointed by the Governor.

(2) The persons named in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) shall, whilst holding their respective offices, be ex-officio members of the committee.

(3) Members appointed by the Governor shall hold office for three years from the date of their respective appointments, and may be re-appointed or removed by the Governor at his pleasure.

5. The trustee shall apply the fund, in such manner as the committee may direct, for the promotion and encouragement of local education, and in particular—

The trusts.

(a) for the provision of scholarships and maintenance grants in Primary Schools, Secondary Schools and Industrial and Technical Schools in the Colony for persons resident in the Colony and in need of financial assistance for their education; and

(b) for the provision of scholarships and maintenance grants for the persons mentioned in paragraph (a) in places of higher education in the Colony.

6. The scholarships and maintenance grants referred to in section 5 shall be awarded, at such intervals and as the result of such examination or other method of selection and in such manner and shall be held and enjoyed for such period and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as shall, from time to time, be prescribed by regulations made by the committee, or in default of such regulations, then as the committee shall determine; and the committee may, at any time, alter or revoke any regulation made under this section, and make new regulations in place thereof.

Intervals, and terms and conditions of awards.

7. The trustee may invest the moneys of the fund in the name of the trustee in such investments of any kind, including shares in local companies, whether such investments are permitted for the investment of trust funds or not, as the committee may direct; and, in like manner, such investments may at any time be varied.

Investments.

Standing orders of the committee.

8. The committee may, from time to time with the approval of the Governor, frame and, from time to time with the like approval, alter standing orders for its internal management and control; and all such standing orders when so approved as aforesaid shall be binding on every member of the committee.

Power to solicit and take subscriptions and bequests.

9. The committee may, from time to time, solicit and take on behalf of the trustee subscriptions and bequests to the fund.

Accounts and audit.

10. (1) The trustee shall cause proper accounts to be kept of all income and expenditure of the fund, and such accounts shall be audited at least once in every year by an auditor appointed from time to time by the Governor.

(2) A copy of such accounts, together with a copy of a report by the committee on the administration of the fund during the previous academic year, shall be submitted to the Governor not later than the 31st day of December in every year.

Servants and advisers.

11. (1) The committee may appoint upon such salary and upon such terms as it may think proper such servants as it may think necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance, and may employ any professional persons to advise it on any matter arising out of or in connexion with such provisions.

(2) All salaries and fees of any person so appointed or employed shall be paid by the trustee out of the fund.

Cost of administration.

12. The cost of administering the fund shall be paid out of the fund.

Subscribers before 30th June, 1955, to be deemed founders.

13. Any person, and any firm, company, corporation or other body whatsoever, who or which makes a subscription to the fund on or before the 30th day of June, 1955, shall be deemed to be a founder.

14. As soon as practicable after the 30th day of June, 1955, the Colonial Secretary shall cause to be published in the Gazette—

Publication of lists of founders and subscriptions.

(a) a list of the founders mentioned in the Preamble together with the amounts of their respective subscriptions, and

(b) a list of the founders mentioned in section 13 together with the amounts of their respective subscriptions.

Governor.

3rd March, 1955.

An Ordinance to make provision for the establishment of a trust fund to be known as the Brewin Trust Fund, and for the due administration thereof, and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid.

[4th March, 1955.]

WHEREAS—

(1) In 1906 a sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) was raised by various members of the Chinese community to start a trust fund to be named the Brewin Fund in honour of Mr. Arthur Winbolt Brewin, C.M.G., the then Registrar General, a post the title of which was later changed to Secretary for Chinese Affairs:

(2) The objects of the Brewin Fund were set out in a certain trust deed which has been lost as a result of the Japanese occupation of the Colony:

(3) From recollection of persons who were connected with the Brewin Fund and from certain other papers and documents available, it would appear that the Brewin Fund was vested in and managed by the Tung Wah Hospital and was administered by a committee of which the Secretary for Chinese Affairs was ex-officio chairman, and that the main objects of the Brewin Fund were to provide for the benefit of Chinese widows and orphans resident in the Colony who might become destitute and of Chinese workmen employed in the Colony who might become incapacitated for work by reason of old age or sickness or who might have been permanently disabled by accident :

(4) In view of the provisions of section 4 of the Tung Wah Hospital Ordinance, Chapter 317, the Tung Wah Hospital has expressed its desire to be relieved of the management of the Brewin Fund :

(5) The assets of the Brewin Fund as at the 30th day of November, 1954, are set out in the Schedule hereto :

(6) It is considered that having regard to all the circumstances, it is expedient by Ordinance to extinguish the existing trust of the Brewin Fund, to create a new trust in respect of the same, and to make due provision for the administration thereof :

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Brewin Trust Fund Ordinance, 1955.

Interpretation. 2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—“Chinese” means persons of the Chinese race;
“committee” means the committee appointed under section 5;
“widow” includes a concubine and a mother of a child not born in wedlock.

Establishment and vesting of fund. 3. (1) There is hereby established a trust fund to be known as the Brewin Trust Fund (hereinafter referred to as the fund), which shall, on a day to be appointed by the Governor by notice in the Gazette (hereinafter referred to as the vesting day), be transferred to and vested in the Secretary for Chinese Affairs Incorporated as trustee.

(2) The fund shall consist of the moneys and assets set out in the Schedule together with any sum accumulated by way of interest thereon, rents, dividends and such other moneys as may be paid into the fund but less all such proper disbursements as may be made before the vesting day, and the fund shall include also such other moneys and assets as may from time to time after the vesting day be acquired by the trustee on the trusts hereinafter set out. Schedule.

(3) Upon the vesting day, the leasehold property mentioned in the Schedule shall vest in the trustee by virtue of this section and without further assurance.

(4) So soon as may be after the vesting day, the auditor appointed under section 10 shall cause the accounts of the fund to be examined, and shall certify to the Governor the state of the fund as on the vesting day; and a copy of such certificate shall be published in the Gazette.

4. The trustee shall hold and stand possessed of the fund upon trust to apply the same in such manner and to such extent as the committee may direct for the following objects— Objects of the trust fund.

- (a) for the maintenance and benefit of Chinese widows and orphans who, being resident in the Colony, appear to the committee to require such maintenance and benefit; and
- (b) for the maintenance and benefit of Chinese workmen, which expression shall include females, who having been employed in the Colony and become wholly or in part incapacitated for work by reason of age, sickness, disablement or otherwise, appear to the committee to require such maintenance and benefit.

5. (1) There shall be established a committee to be known as the Brewin Trust Fund Committee. Establishment of committee.

(2) The committee shall consist of the Secretary for Chinese Affairs as ex-officio member and chairman and such members not less than five in all as the Governor may appoint.

(3) A member appointed by the Governor shall hold office for such period as may be specified in the letter of appointment, and may be re-appointed or removed by the Governor at his pleasure.

(4) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business by the committee may be fixed by standing orders made under section 7 and unless so fixed shall be three members.

Control by committee.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the committee may determine all matters whatsoever touching the administration of the fund and the attainment of the objects thereof.

Standing orders.

7. (1) The committee may make standing orders—
(a) governing their procedure in the transaction of business;
(b) for the maintenance of good order at their meetings; and
(c) generally for matters relating to the administration and management of the fund and the discharge of their duties.

(2) A copy of such standing orders shall be furnished to the Colonial Secretary and they shall be subject to disallowance, alteration or amendment by the Governor.

(3) All questions arising at any meeting of the committee shall be decided by a majority of votes of members present and, in case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his original vote.

Appointment of officers.

8. (1) The committee may from time to time appoint upon such salary and upon such terms as they may think proper, a secretary, treasurer, and such other officials as they may think necessary for the purpose of carrying out the trusts; and may employ any professional person to advise them on any point arising out of or in connexion with the said trusts.

(2) All salaries and fees of any person or persons so appointed or employed shall be paid by the trustee out of the fund.

Investment of moneys.

9. The trustee may invest any moneys of the fund in such investments, whether or not such investments are trust investments, as the committee may direct.

Accounts.

10. (1) The trustee shall cause proper accounts to be kept of all income and expenditure of the fund, and such accounts shall be audited at least once in every year from the date of the commencement of this Ordinance by an auditor appointed from time to time by the Governor.

(2) The accounts kept under subsection (1) together with a copy of the auditor's report thereon, and a copy of a report by the committee on the administration of the fund during the previous year shall be laid upon the Table of the Legislative Council.

11. (1) As from the commencement of this Ordinance, any existing trust attaching to the Brewin Fund is hereby extinguished, but without prejudice to any act or thing lawfully done or omitted to be done under any such trust. Extinguishment of existing fund.

(2) Any person who has done or omitted to do any act or thing in relation to the Brewin Fund in good faith and in execution or intended execution of any such trust as is mentioned in subsection (1) is hereby discharged from all liability or claims by any person in respect of such trust.

Governor.

31st March, 1955.

An Ordinance to make provision for the abatement of smoke nuisances affecting the use of Hong Kong Airport (Kai Tak) by aircraft.

[1st April, 1955.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Air Navigation Short title. (Abatement of Smoke Nuisances) Ordinance, 1955.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Inter-pretation.

“Director of Civil Aviation” includes the Deputy Director of Civil Aviation;

“smoke” includes soot, ash, grit and gritty particles and any vapour;

"smoke nuisance" means any emission of smoke which, either alone or in conjunction with any other such emission, imperils or is likely to imperil the safety of aircraft using Hong Kong Airport (Kai Tak).

Notice to occupier of likelihood of smoke nuisance.

3. Where in the opinion of the Director of Civil Aviation a smoke nuisance is likely to emanate from any premises, he may give to the occupier of the premises written notice thereof, specifying the nature of the nuisance apprehended.

Notification of existence or imminence of smoke nuisance.

4. (1) On any occasion when, in the opinion of the Director of Civil Aviation, a smoke nuisance exists or is imminent, he shall, as soon as practicable after he has become aware thereof, notify the existence or imminence, as the case may be, of the nuisance to the occupier of any premises which, in his opinion, are by the emission of smoke causing or contributing to the existence or imminence of such nuisance.

(2) Such notification shall require such occupier, forthwith and for so long as it remains in force, to reduce or eliminate the emission of smoke from his premises to the satisfaction of the Director of Civil Aviation.

(3) A notification given under subsection (1) shall remain in force until such time as the Director of Civil Aviation notifies the occupier of the premises to which it relates that there is no longer any need on that occasion to reduce or eliminate the emission of smoke from such premises.

(4) A notification given under subsection (3) shall be without prejudice to the giving of a further notification under subsection (1) as occasion may require.

(5) If a notification given under either subsection (1) or subsection (3) is not in writing, the Director of Civil Aviation—

- (a) shall, if so required at the time of the notification by the person to whom the same is given, confirm the same in writing; and
- (b) may, if no such requirement as aforesaid is made, confirm the notification in writing.

(6) Written confirmation under subsection (5) shall be given as soon as practicable after the giving of the notification to which it relates.

5. (1) Any person to whom a notification under subsection (1) of section 4 has been given, may appeal against any requirement thereof by writing addressed to the Governor or the Governor in Council at the option of the appellant. Appeal.

(2) The Governor or the Governor in Council, as the case may be, shall either confirm or vary or annul such requirement and his decision shall be final, but pending such decision, the appellant shall comply with all the requirements of such notification.

6. In the event of a notification given under subsection (1) of section 4 not being complied with, the occupier of the premises in relation to which it has been given shall be guilty of an offence and liable— Penalty for failure to abate nuisance.

(a) on summary conviction, to a fine of twenty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months; or

(b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve months.

7. Neither the Government nor the Director of Civil Aviation shall be liable for any loss or damage— No liability for loss or damage.

(a) consequent upon the enforcement of any of the provisions of this Ordinance; or

(b) caused by the existence of any smoke nuisance, whether or not any of the provisions of this Ordinance have been enforced.

Governor.

14th April, 1955.

An Ordinance to regulate the publication of reports of judicial proceedings in such manner as to prevent injury to public morals.

[15th April, 1955.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Judicial Proceedings (Regulation of Reports) Ordinance, 1955.

Short title.
Restriction on publication of reports of judicial proceedings.

2. (1) It shall not be lawful to print or publish, or cause or procure to be printed or published—

(a) in relation to any judicial proceedings any indecent matter or any medical, surgical or physiological details being matter or details which are of a revolting or offensive nature or the publication of which would be calculated to injure public morals;

(b) in relation to any judicial proceedings for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for judicial separation, or for restitution of conjugal rights, any particulars other than the following, that is to say—

(i) the names, addresses and occupations of the parties and witnesses;

(ii) a concise statement of the charges, defences and counter-charges in support of which evidence has been given;

(iii) submissions on any point of law arising in the course of the proceedings, and the decision of the court thereon;

(iv) the summing-up of the judge and the finding of the jury (if any) and the judgment of the court and observations made by the judge in giving judgment:

Provided that nothing in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be held to permit the publication of anything contrary to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of eight thousand dollars and to imprisonment for four months:

Provided that no person, other than a proprietor, editor, master printer or publisher, shall be liable to be convicted under this Ordinance.

(3) A prosecution under this Ordinance shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney General.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to the printing of any pleading, transcript of evidence or other document for use in connexion with any judicial proceedings or the communication thereof to persons concerned in the proceedings, or to the printing or publishing of any notice or report in pursuance of the directions of the court; or to the printing or publishing of any matter in any separate volume or part of any bona-fide series of law reports which does not form part of any other publication and consists solely of reports of proceedings in courts of law, or in any publication of a technical character bona-fide intended for circulation among members of the legal or medical professions.

(5) The expression "judicial proceedings" includes any proceedings before any court, tribunal or person having by law power to hear, receive and examine evidence on oath.

3. Section 46 of the Divorce Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Repeal of section 46
of Cap. 179.

5th May, 1955.

An Ordinance to amend the Telephone Ordinance, 1951.

[6th May, 1955.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Telephone (Amendment) Ordinance, 1955. Short title.

2. Section 4 of the Telephone Ordinance, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance), is repealed and replaced by the following section— Repeal and replacement of section 4. (18 of 1951).

4. (1) The company shall remain registered under the Companies Ordinance.

"Company to remain registered under Cap. 32, and British interest to be maintained.

(2) The directors shall be bona fide resident in Hong Kong and the majority of them shall be British subjects.

(3) The management and the administrative staff, or an effective majority thereof to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council, shall also be British subjects."

Repeal and replacement of section 7.

3. Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and replaced by the following sections—

"Royalty.

7. (1) As from the 1st day of January, 1955, the company shall pay to the Government a royalty of twenty-five per cent of the net profit of the company for each year.

(2) The net profit as aforesaid shall be ascertained in accordance with Part IV of the Inland Revenue Ordinance :

Provided that in making the deductions set forth in section 16 of the said Ordinance due regard shall be had to the current level of prices and costs, so that any such deduction shall be limited to a sum which in the opinion of the Financial Secretary is reasonable, and so that allowance of any sum by way of depreciation of a capital asset shall be limited to an amount which represents the allowance approved under Part VI of the said Ordinance on what in the opinion of the Financial Secretary is a reasonable price for such asset :

Provided further that in ascertaining the net profit as aforesaid, no deduction shall be made in respect of any sum which may be payable as royalty by the company to the Government.

(3) The Financial Secretary and any person authorized by him in writing shall for the purpose of ascertaining the net profit be an authorized representative of the company for the purposes of section 4 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance to the intent that the Commissioner of Inland Revenue and any assessor or person appointed to carry out duties under the said Ordinance shall, on demand by the Financial Secretary, disclose all such matters relating to the affairs of the company as the Financial Secretary or such authorized person may require, and such disclosure shall not be deemed to be a breach of the duties imposed upon the person making it by the said section.

(4) In the event of the company failing to agree with the assessment of net profit made by the Financial Secretary, an appeal, by way of petition, shall lie to the Governor in Council whose decision shall be final.

(5) As from the 1st day of May, 1955, the company shall make monthly payments on account of the royalty accruing during each current accounting year of the company and the amount of each such payment shall be a sum equal to one twelfth of twenty-five per cent of the estimated net profit for the current year or such sum as the Financial Secretary may determine. As soon as the net profit for the current year has been ascertained a final adjustment shall be made and the Government shall refund any sum paid on account in excess of the royalty due for that year or if the amounts paid on account by the company are less than the royalty due, the company shall pay the Government the balance thereof.

Power of the Financial Secretary to call upon the company and certain persons dealing with the company to produce books and statements of account.

7A. (1) It shall be lawful for the Financial Secretary for the purpose of ascertaining the net profit of the company during any period in respect of which royalty is payable under the provisions of section 7 or of ascertaining whether any deduction which the company has made or may be seeking to make from profits is reasonable, by writing under his hand to call upon the company and any person (other than a bank) who has entered into any agreement with the company or to whom it has made any payment to produce to such person and at such time and place as may by any general or particular description be specified in such writing such books and statements of account (including bank statements) as he may by such writing require.

(2) The company or any person aggrieved by any exercise of the discretion conferred upon the Financial Secretary may appeal, by way of petition, to the Governor in Council whose decision shall be final.

(3) Subject to the right of appeal conferred by subsection (2), it shall be an offence to fail to comply with any requirement lawfully made under subsection (1) or any requirement which may have been confirmed or substituted therefor on appeal under subsection (2):
Penalty: a fine of one hundred dollars in respect of each day during which such failure continues."

Amendment of section 24.

4. Section 24 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the addition thereto of the following sentence—

"The company shall provide, equip and operate to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council in locations suitable for the purpose, telephone exchanges capable of expansion to meet the requirements of the Colony."

Repeal and replacement of section 34.

5. Section 34 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and replaced by the following section—

"Telephone services for Government.
34. The company shall provide the Government with such telephone services as may be required and in accordance with the charges specified in the Schedule less a discount of fifty per cent."

Amendment of section 39.

6. Subsection (1) of section 39 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion from sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of the expression "sections 24 and 26 or any of them" and the substitution therefor of the following—

"section 24".

Repeal of sections 5, 6, 26, 31, 33 and 35(3).

7. Sections 5, 6, 26, 31 and 33 and subsection (3) of section 35 of the principal Ordinance are repealed.

Amendment of Part I of the Schedule.

8. Part I of the Schedule to the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion of items 1 and 2 and the substitution therefor of the following—

- "1. For an exchange line used for business purposes within Victoria, Kowloon or the Peak District, or within a radius of one mile from any exchange that may be established outside those areas. $50 for installation, payable in advance. $300 per annum for service, payable in advance, in whole for the first year and thereafter by quarterly instalments.
- 2. For an exchange line in a bona fide place of residence within Victoria, Kowloon or the Peak District or within a radius of one mile from any exchange that may be established outside those areas. $50 for installation, payable in advance. $225 per annum for service, payable in advance, in whole for the first year and thereafter by quarterly instalments."

9. Part II of the Schedule to the principal Ordinance is amended—

Amendment of Part II of the Schedule.

(a) by the deletion from the third column of all matter relating to item 1 and the substitution therefor of the following—

"$20 for installation, payable in advance.
$70 per annum for service, payable in advance, in whole for the first year and thereafter by quarterly instalments.";

(b) by the deletion from the third column of all matter relating to item 4 and the substitution therefor of the following—

(f) is an undischarged bankrupt or within five years before has either obtained his discharge in bankruptcy or has entered into a composition with his creditors, in either case, without paying his creditors in full.

Qualification for membership of the Council.

7. A person of either sex, unless disqualified by virtue of this Ordinance or any other enactment, shall be qualified for nomination as a candidate or election or appointment as an ordinary member if he is—

- (a) entitled to be and is registered as an elector, and
- (b) able, to the satisfaction of such authority or person as the Governor may appoint in that behalf, to speak, and, unless incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause, to read and write the English language with a degree of proficiency sufficient to enable him to take an active part in the proceedings of the Council :

(Cap. 3).

Provided that if any person is possessed of the knowledge of the English language required by section 4 of the Jury Ordinance he shall be deemed without further inquiry to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section.

Eligibility for re-election or reappointment.

8. A person ceasing to be an ordinary member shall, unless he is not qualified or is disqualified, be eligible to be again elected, nominated for election or appointed as an ordinary member.

Saving.

9. The acts and proceedings of any person elected or appointed as an ordinary member under the provisions of this Ordinance and acting as such shall, notwithstanding his disqualification or want of qualification, be as valid and effectual as if he had been qualified.

Acceptance of office.
Schedule.

10. (1) A person elected or appointed to be an ordinary member shall not, unless he has made a declaration of acceptance of office in the form prescribed in the Schedule and the declaration has been delivered to the Chairman within thirty days after the publication in the Gazette of the notification of his election or appointment, act as such ordinary member.

(2) If such declaration is not made and delivered to the Chairman within thirty days after the publication in the Gazette of the notification of such election or appointment the election or appointment of the said person shall thereupon be null and void.

(3) The declaration shall be made before a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate within the Colony or a Commissioner for Oaths.

11. An ordinary member may at any time resign his office by a notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Chairman and such resignation shall take effect upon the receipt of the notice of resignation by the Chairman.

Resigna-
member.

12. (1) If an appointed member is of the opinion that he will be prevented for more than six months by absence from the Colony or any other cause from acting he may give notice in writing to this effect to the Governor who may thereupon appoint some other person to replace such appointed member until he returns to the Colony or is able to resume his functions and has notified the Governor in writing accordingly.

Substitution of
members.

(2) If an appointed member has been prevented for more than six months by absence from the Colony or other cause from acting and has not given the notice prescribed in subsection (1) hereof the Governor may appoint some other person to replace such appointed member until he returns to the Colony or is able to resume his functions and has notified the Governor in writing accordingly.

13. If an ordinary member fails throughout a period of six consecutive months to attend any meeting of the Council he shall, unless the failure was due to some reason approved of by the Council, cease to hold office as a member of the Council :

attendance.

Provided that a member of the Defence Force or Auxiliary Services or of the Hong Kong Police Reserve Force employed as such during war or emergency on any service therewith shall not cease to hold office as an ordinary member by reason only of failure to attend meetings of the Council if such failure was due to such employment.

Publication of notice of vacancy.

14. When an ordinary member—

- (a) becomes disqualified by reason of any of the provisions of section 6; or
- (b) ceases to be registered or entitled to be registered as an elector; or
- (c) ceases to be an ordinary member by reason of the provisions of section 13; or
- (d) dies; or
- (e) resigns in accordance with the provisions of section 11; or
- (f) fails to complete and deliver to the Chairman within the appointed time a declaration of acceptance of office in accordance with the provisions of section 10;
- (g) in the case of an elected member, is declared by the Supreme Court on an election petition not to have been validly elected, the Chairman shall forthwith declare his office to be vacant by a notification published in the Gazette.

PART IV.

Franchise.

Qualification for registration as an elector.

15. Subject to the provisions of section 16 the persons who shall be entitled to be registered as electors and to vote at the election of any ordinary member of the Council held in any year shall be those persons male or female, who on the first day of July of the previous year—

- (a) were on either the list of special jurors or the list of common jurors prepared in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of the Jury Ordinance; or
- (b) would have been liable for jury service save for exemption on one or more of the following grounds—

(Cap. 3).

- (i) under section 5 of the Jury Ordinance;
- (ii) on account of being over the age of sixty or of being afflicted with deafness, blindness or other such infirmity;

(iii) on account of exemption from jury service having been given by the Governor in Council or by the Supreme Court;

or have been omitted or removed from either the list of special jurors or the list of common jurors merely through mistake in the preparation of such list:

Provided that—

(i) a salaried functionary of a foreign government who is not carrying on business in the Colony shall not be qualified by this paragraph;

(ii) in respect of any person exempted from jury service by paragraph (b) of section 5 of the Jury Ordinance the production of a certificate from the head of his department that he possesses the qualifications set out in section 4 of the Jury Ordinance shall be prima facie evidence of such qualification; or (Cap. 3).

(c) were persons permitted to teach by section 21 or section 25 of the Education Ordinance, 1952, or certified by the Director of Education as teachers in schools exempted from the Education Ordinance, 1952, by section 6 thereof; or (33 of 1952).

(d) had paid tax assessed under Part III or Part VII of the Inland Revenue Ordinance for the two years of assessment immediately preceding such first day of July and any two other years which qualification shall be deemed to be proved by the production of a certificate from the Commissioner of Inland Revenue to that effect: (Cap. 112).

Provided that the following shall not be qualified—

(i) any member of the Police Force, which expression shall not include the Police Reserve or the Special Constabulary;

(ii) any member of the Regular Armed Forces of the Crown.

16. No person shall be entitled to be registered as an elector or to vote at the election of any ordinary member of the Council who— Disqualification by status.

- (a) has not attained the age of twenty-one years;

- (b) has in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions or in any territory under Her Majesty's Protectorate or in any territory in which Her Majesty has from time to time jurisdiction been sentenced to death or imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term exceeding six months and has not either suffered the punishment to which he was sentenced or such other punishment as may by competent authority have been substituted therefor or received a free pardon; or
- (c) is under any law in force in the Colony found or declared to be of unsound mind or adjudged to be a lunatic.

Temporary disqualification.

17. (1) The following persons are disqualified from being registered as electors or voting at an election of an ordinary member of the Council held within seven years from the date of conviction—

- (a) any person convicted of a corrupt practice or of an illegal practice within the meaning of any enactment for the time being in force providing for the punishment of corrupt or illegal practices;
- (b) any person convicted of an offence under section 3 or section 4 of the Prevention of Corruption Ordinance.

(Cap. 215).

(2) A person shall not be disqualified from voting at an election by reason only of the fact that he is employed for payment by or on behalf of a candidate at such election, so long as the employment is legal.

PART V.

Registration.

Appointment of registration officer.

18. (1) On or before the 1st day of July in each year the Governor shall appoint a registration officer to prepare and revise the register of electors:

Provided that if no appointment is made the person who previously performed the duties of registration officer shall continue to perform such duties until such appointment shall have been made.

(2) The Governor may appoint an assistant registration officer.

(3) Notification of the appointment and the address of the registration officer shall forthwith be published in the Gazette.

(4) The registration officer shall be provided with such staff as he may require from time to time.

19. (1) It shall be the duty of the registration officer—

Duties of registration officer.

- (a) to compile a provisional register on or before the 1st day of September in each year; and
- (b) to compile and publish a final register on or before the 1st day of February in each year.

(2) A final register shall come into force on the 15th day of February of the year in which it is published and shall remain in force until the 14th day of February of the year next following:

Provided that if for any reason whatsoever a final register is not published on or before any 1st day of February in any year the register in force at that time shall continue in force until fifteen days after the date of publication of such final register.

20. (1) The Registrar of the Supreme Court shall perform the duties of revising officer during the month of November in each year at such times and at such place as he shall have notified to the registration officer during the preceding month of August:

Revising officer.

Provided that if for any reason whatsoever the Registrar of the Supreme Court is not available to sit as revising officer at any time the Chief Justice may appoint any magistrate or any legal officer within the meaning of the Legal Officers Ordinance to perform the duties of revising officer.

(Cap. 87).

(2) While the revising officer is sitting as such he shall have the powers and protection of a magistrate under sections 21, 22, 96, 123 and 124 of the Magistrates Ordinance.

(Cap. 227).

21. (1) An appeal shall lie from any decision of the registration officer to the revising officer and the decision of the revising officer on any such appeal shall be final.

Appeals to revising officer.

(2) The registration officer or an assistant registration officer shall appear before the revising officer in person in respect of any such appeal.

(3) Any other person concerned in any such appeal may appear before the revising officer in person and in addition may be represented by his legal adviser.

Expenses and fees of registration officer.

22. (1) Any expenses properly incurred by a registration officer in the performance of his duties shall be payable out of the general revenue of the Colony.

(2) All fees payable to and received by or on behalf of the registration officer in connexion with or in respect of his duties shall be accounted for and paid into the general revenue of the Colony.

Power to make regulations.

23. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance the Governor in Council may by regulations prescribe for—

- (a) the registration of electors;
- (b) the revision of the registers of electors;
- (c) the ascertainment of the qualifications of electors;
- (d) the conduct of appeals from decisions of the registration officer;
- (e) the declaration and delineation of polling stations;
- (f) generally carrying into effect the provisions of this part of this Ordinance.

(2) Any regulation made under this section may provide that a contravention thereof shall be an offence and may provide penalties for such offence not exceeding a fine of one thousand dollars and imprisonment for six months.

PART VI.

Elections.

Appointment of returning officer.

24. (1) In the month of December in each year the Governor shall appoint a returning officer to conduct any election which may be required under the provisions of this Ordinance during the year next following :

Provided that if no such appointment is made the person who last performed the duties of returning officer shall continue to perform such duties until such appointment is made.

(2) The Governor may appoint an assistant returning officer.

(3) Notification of the appointment of a returning officer shall forthwith be published in the Gazette.

(4) The returning officer shall be provided with such staff as he may require from time to time.

(5) All expenses properly incurred by a returning officer under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be payable out of the general revenue of the Colony.

25. (1) It shall be the duty of the returning officer—

Duties of returning officers.

- (a) to conduct an annual election during the month of March of each year as may be required to fill vacancies caused by two elected members ceasing to hold office in accordance with subsection (2) of section 4; and
- (b) to conduct such extraordinary elections as may be required to fill vacancies published under section 14 or in lieu of any election which has been countermanded; and
- (c) to declare the result of each such election by publication in the Gazette of a notification to that effect.

(2) A returning officer shall countermand an election if a candidate dies or becomes disqualified in accordance with the provisions of section 6 or ceases to be qualified in accordance with the provisions of section 7 at any time between the last day for nomination of candidates and the day of the election.

26. (1) An election held under this Ordinance shall not be invalidated by non-compliance with provisions of any regulations made under this Ordinance or mistake in the use of the forms prescribed in such regulations if it appears to the Court having cognizance of the question that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Ordinance and that the non-compliance or mistake did not affect the result of the election. Saving.

(2) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place named in any register of electors, electors' list, nomination paper, ballot paper, voting paper, or notice, shall affect the full operation of that document with respect to that person or place, in any case where the description of the person or place is such as to be commonly understood.

Presump-

27. (1) An election held under this Ordinance, unless questioned by election petition within the period fixed by law for the filing of such a petition, shall be deemed to have been a good and valid election.

(2) An election held under this Ordinance shall not be liable to be questioned by reason of a defect in the title, or want of title, of the person presiding at, or conducting, the election, if that person was then in actual possession of, or acting in, the office giving the right to preside at, or conduct, the election.

Penalties against returning officer.

28. If a person appointed to perform the duties of returning officer at, or to take part in the conduct of, an election under this Ordinance neglects or refuses to conduct the election, or to declare the result of, or to take part in the conduct of the election, as required by this Ordinance or by any regulations made thereunder, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine of two thousand dollars :

Provided that a person shall not be liable to conviction under this section, unless the information has been laid within three months from the date of the commission of the offence.

Proceedings
ordinary
members.

29. (1) Proceedings may be instituted, either in the Supreme Court or in a magistrate's court, against any person acting as an ordinary member, on the ground of his being disqualified within the meaning of this section for so acting, and proceedings may be instituted in the Supreme Court on the like ground against any person claiming to be entitled to so act :

Provided that proceedings under this section on the ground of a person acting as aforesaid shall not be instituted after the expiration of six months from the date on which he so acted.

(2) Where in proceedings instituted under this section it is proved that the defendant has acted as an ordinary member while disqualified for so acting, then—

- (a) in proceedings in the Supreme Court, the court may—
  - (i) make a declaration to that effect and to declare that the office in which the defendant has acted is vacant;

(ii) grant an injunction restraining the defendant from so acting; and

(iii) order that the defendant shall forfeit to the Crown such sum as the court think fit, not exceeding one thousand dollars for each occasion on which he so acted while disqualified;

(b) in proceedings in a magistrate's court, the court may, subject to the provisions of this section, on conviction impose on the defendant a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for each occasion on which he so acted while disqualified.

(3) Where proceedings are instituted under this section in a magistrate's court—

(a) if the magistrate is satisfied that the matter in question would be more properly dealt with in the Supreme Court, he shall order the discontinuance of proceedings in the magistrate's court;

(b) if, on application made to the Supreme Court by the defendant within fourteen days after service of the summons upon him, the Supreme Court is satisfied that the matter in question would be more properly dealt with in the Supreme Court the Supreme Court may make an order, which shall not be subject to any appeal, requiring the magistrate to order the discontinuance of proceedings in the magistrate's court.

(4) When in proceedings instituted under this section in the Supreme Court it is proved that the defendant claims to act as an ordinary member and is disqualified for so acting, the Court may make a declaration to that effect and that the office in which the defendant claims to be entitled to act is vacant, and may grant an injunction restraining him from so acting.

(5) No proceedings shall be instituted under this section by any person other than an elector or the Attorney General.

(6) Where proceedings are instituted under this section by a person other than the Attorney General such proceedings shall thereafter be stayed until such person shall give security for all costs, charges and expenses which may become payable by him to any witness summoned on his behalf or to a defendant.

(7) The security shall be of such amount, not exceeding five thousand dollars, and shall be given in such manner and form as the Court may direct.

(8) Except as provided by this section, no proceedings shall be instituted against a person on the ground that he has while disqualified for acting as an ordinary member, so acted or claimed to be entitled so to act.

(9) For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to be disqualified for acting as an ordinary member—

- (a) if he is not qualified to be, or is disqualified for being, an ordinary member; or
- (b) if by reason of failure to make and deliver the declaration of acceptance of office within the period required, resignation or failure to attend meetings of the Council, as the case may be, he has ceased to be an ordinary member.

Power to make regulations.

30. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance the Governor in Council may by regulations prescribe for the general conduct of elections including—

- (a) the nomination of candidates therefor including the filing of consent to such nomination and the withdrawal of any such nomination;
- (b) the lodgement of deposits by or on behalf of candidates and the forfeiture thereof;
- (c) the appointment of persons to assist the returning officer in the conduct of the election;
- (d) the appointment by the candidate of certain persons to assist him in connexion with the election;
- (e) the conduct of polling stations and the regulation of the ballot;
- (f) the counting of votes;
- (g) the declaration of the results of elections;
- (h) the disposal of ballot papers and other such papers after an election;
- (i) generally carrying into effect the provisions of this part of this Ordinance.

(2) Any regulation made under this section may provide that a contravention thereof shall be an offence and may provide penalties for such offence not exceeding a fine of one thousand dollars and imprisonment for six months.

PART VII.

Election Petitions.

31. In this Part of this Ordinance "Court" means the Supreme Court and "Registrar" means the Registrar of the Supreme Court. Interpretation.

32. (1) An election may be questioned by an election petition on the following grounds or any of them— Power to question election by petition.

- (a) that the election was wholly avoided by general bribery, treating, undue influence, or personation; or
- (b) that the election was avoided by corrupt practices or by illegal practices committed at the election; or
- (c) that the person whose election is questioned was at the time of the election disqualified; or
- (d) that illegal practices committed in reference to the election of a candidate thereat, so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result of the election; or
- (e) on any other ground provided by any enactment whereon an election may be questioned.

(2) No election may be questioned on any one or more of these grounds except by an election petition.

33. An election petition may be presented either by ten or more persons who had a right to vote at the election, or by a person alleging himself to have been a candidate at the election. Who may present petition.

34. (1) Any person whose election is questioned by an election petition and any returning officer of whose conduct a petition complains, may be made a respondent to the petition. Who may be respondent.

(2) Two or more candidates may be made respondents to the same petition and their cases may be tried at the same time, but for the purposes of this part of this Ordinance (including the provision of security for costs) the petition shall be deemed to be a separate petition against each respondent.

35. (1) An election petition shall be signed by the petitioner or by each petitioner if there is more than one and shall be presented to the Court by leaving the petition, together with two copies thereof, with the Registrar who shall give a receipt therefor, if required so to do. Signature and presentation of petition.

(2) The Registrar shall forthwith send two certified true copies of the petition to the secretary who shall cause one of such copies to be posted in a conspicuous place on or near the outer door of his office, or, in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of the office of the Council.

Jurisdiction of Supreme Court in respect of petition.

36. (1) The Court shall have the same jurisdiction, powers and authority in respect of an election petition and all proceedings thereon as it would have if such petition was an ordinary cause within its jurisdiction.

(2) The trial of an election petition shall be holden in open court and before one judge unless the Chief Justice shall otherwise direct.

(3) The Chief Justice may, from time to time, make rules for the effectual carrying out of the provisions of this part of this Ordinance and for the regulation of matters relating to the preparation, presentation, service, trial, withdrawal and costs of election petitions (including the provision of security for costs thereon) and the practice and procedure connected therewith, as well as the certifying and reporting thereon.

Time within which petition may be presented.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an election petition shall be presented—

- (a) in the case of an election which is not contested, within twenty-one days after the publication by the returning officer of the list of persons elected; and
- (b) in the case of a contested election, within twenty-one days after the declaration by the returning officer of the result of the election.

(2) If the election is questioned on the ground of a corrupt practice and the petition specifically alleges a payment of money or other reward to have been made since the time of the election by the candidate elected thereat, or on his account or with his privity, in pursuance or in furtherance of such corrupt practices, it may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after such payment.

(3) If the election is questioned on the ground of an illegal practice, it may be presented at any time within fourteen days after the day on which the secretary receives the return and declaration respecting election expenses by the candidate to whose election the petition relates, or where there is an authorized excuse for failing to make the return and declaration, within fourteen days of the allowance of the excuse.

(4) If the election is questioned on the ground of an illegal practice and the petition specifically alleges a payment of money made or other act done since the election by the candidate elected thereat or by his agent, or with the privity of the candidate in pursuance or in furtherance of such illegal practice, it may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after such payment or act, whether or not any other petition against that person has been previously presented or tried.

(5) A petition, presented within the time limited for the purpose of questioning the election upon an allegation of an illegal practice, may be amended with the leave of the Court within the time which is allowed under this section for the presentation of a petition questioning the election on the ground of that illegal practice.

(6) The foregoing provisions as to the time within which a petition alleging, either originally or by amendment, an illegal practice may be presented shall apply even though the illegal practice is also a corrupt practice.

38. (1) At the time of presenting an election petition, or within five days thereafter, the petitioner shall give security for all costs, charges and expenses which may become payable by him to any witness summoned on his behalf or to any respondent. Security for costs.

(2) The security shall be of such amount, not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and shall be given in such manner and form as the Court may direct.

(3) In default of compliance with the provisions of this section no further proceedings shall be taken on the petition.

39. (1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the Court shall determine— Determination of Court.

- (a) in the case of an election which is not contested and in connexion with which the decision of the returning officer as to the validity of any nomination is brought to review, whether such decision was correct or whether the election was void; and

(b) in the case of a contested election, whether the person whose election is complained of, or any and what other person, was duly elected, or whether the election was void;

and shall forthwith certify in writing under the hand of a judge and the seal of the Court the determination of the Court and the determination so certified shall be final as to the matters at issue on the petition.

(2) A copy of the certificate of the Court shall be transmitted to the Colonial Secretary and also to the secretary.

(3) The Court may of its own motion or at the request of the Governor make a special report to the Governor as to any matters arising in the course of the trial of an election petition an account of which ought, in the judgment of the Court, to be submitted to the Governor.

With-

40. (1) A petitioner shall not withdraw an election petition without the leave of the Court on application thereto and on such conditions as to public notice or otherwise as the Court may think fit.

(2) On the hearing of the application any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the Court to be substituted as a petitioner, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(3) If the proposed withdrawal is, in the opinion of the Court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, the Court may by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that to the extent of the sum named in the order, the original petitioner (and his sureties, if any) shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.

(4) If the Court does not so direct, then security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition and within such time as the Court may by the order of substitution limit.

(5) Subject as aforesaid, a substituted petitioner shall, as nearly as may be, stand in the same position and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

(6) If a petition is withdrawn, the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

(7) Where there are more petitioners than one, an application to withdraw a petition shall not be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

41. (1) An election petition shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners.

Abate-
petition.

(2) The abatement of a petition shall not affect the liability of the estate of the petitioner or the liability of any other person to the payment of costs previously incurred.

(3) On the abatement of a petition the Registrar shall cause a notification thereof to be published in the Gazette, and within fourteen days after the publication of such notification, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the Court to be substituted as a petitioner, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(4) Security shall be given on behalf of a petitioner so substituted, as in the case of a new petition.

42. (1) If before the trial of an election petition a respondent other than a returning officer—

Withdrawal and substitution of respondent.

(a) dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold the office to which the petition relates; or

(b) gives to the Registrar notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition;

the Registrar shall cause a notification thereof to be published in the Gazette, and within fourteen days after the publication of such notification, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the Court to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition, and shall be admitted accordingly.

(2) A respondent who has given notice as aforesaid that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against the petition in any proceedings thereon.

43. Where a candidate who has been elected is, by a certificate of the Court, declared not to have been duly elected, acts done by him in the execution of his office before the time when the certificate is received by the secretary shall not be invalidated by reason of that declaration.

Validation
of acts done pending a petition.

Elections in place of persons unseated on petition.

44. Where on an election petition the election of any person has been declared void and no other person has been declared elected in his place, a new election shall be held to supply the vacancy in the same manner as a vacancy declared under section 14.

PART VIII.

Meetings, Proceedings and Duties of the Council.

Language.

45. The proceedings of the Council shall be conducted in the English language.

Minutes.

46. (1) The secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Council and of committees of the whole Council and shall, as soon as possible after each meeting, send a copy of the draft minutes thereof to each member.

(2) The minutes of the proceedings of the Council shall record the names of the members attending and all decisions of the Council.

(3) The Chairman shall obtain the confirmation of the Council that the minutes are a true record and shall sign the minutes accordingly. Any minutes purporting to be so signed shall be received in evidence without further proof.

(4) Until the contrary is proved, a meeting of the Council or of a committee thereof, in respect of the proceedings whereof a minute has been so signed shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members present at the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly qualified, and where the proceedings are proceedings of a committee, the committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had power to deal with the matters referred to in the minutes.

Standing orders.

47. The Council may make standing orders for regulating its procedure and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing such standing orders may make such provision for the preservation of order at meetings as the Council may deem necessary.

48. (1) The Council shall meet once in every month and oftener if need be, and may adjourn from time to time. The Chairman may at any time, and shall, on a requisition signed by three members of the Council, within seven days of receiving such requisition summon a meeting of the Council. Meetings.

(2) Notice of a meeting shall be given by the secretary to each member of the Council at least two clear days before the day of the meeting, except in case of emergency when as long a notice as possible shall be given. Accidental omission to supply such notice to any member of the Council shall not affect the validity of a meeting.

49. All questions coming or arising before a meeting of the Council shall be decided by a majority of the members of the Council present and voting thereon: Acts of the Council.

Provided that this section shall not be deemed to limit the discretion of the Council or of any committee thereof to determine any matter by the circulation of papers.

50. At a meeting of the Council the Chairman, if present, shall preside. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting of the Council the Vice-Chairman shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting of the Council the members present shall appoint a temporary chairman to preside. Chairman.

51. (1) At any meeting of the Council four members shall be a quorum. Quorum.

(2) The quorum for any committee of the Council shall be laid down in standing orders of the Council.

52. At any meeting of the Council or of a committee of the whole Council or of a committee of the Council the Chairman or the chairman of a committee, as the case may be, shall have an original vote and also, if the votes be equal, a casting vote. Casting vote of Chairman.

53. The proceedings of the Council or of a committee thereof shall not be invalidated by any vacancy among their number, or by any defect in the election or qualification of any member thereof. Validity of acts of the Council.

Duties of the Council.

54. The duties of the Council shall be to exercise control within the area allotted to it over all matters in respect of which powers are given to it by this Ordinance or any other Ordinance.

Urban Services Department.

55. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the law in respect of matters over which the Council exercises control there shall be an Urban Services Department.

Appointment of officials.

56. The Governor may appoint a secretary and assistant secretaries to the Council, and also health officers, and health and other inspectors and may also appoint such officers of the Urban Services Department as may be required.

Duties of Assistant Director of Health Services.

57. The Assistant Director of Health Services shall be the professional adviser to the Council in all medical matters including matters of public health and sanitation. It shall be his duty to assist and advise the Council on such matters and to superintend the enforcement and observance of all Ordinances relating to public health and of the by-laws and regulations made thereunder.

Duties of Chairman.

58. The Chairman of the Council shall give such instructions as may be necessary for carrying out and giving effect to the decisions and policy of the Council, and shall be responsible also for the general administration of the Urban Services Department.

Appointment of committees.

59. The Council may appoint committees which may include persons who are not members of the Council and may by appointment or removal change the personnel of any such committee :

Provided that at least two-thirds of the members of every such committee shall be members of the Council.

Delegation of powers.

60. (1) The Council may by resolution delegate any of its powers and functions, other than any power to make or amend regulations, rules or by-laws, to any member of the Council or to any committee of the Council or to any member of any such committee or to any public officer with full powers to enforce any of the provisions of any enactment conferring powers on the Council and may revoke such delegation.

(2) Any committee of the Council may by resolution delegate to any member of such committee or to any public officer such power and authority to enforce any of the provisions of any enactment conferring powers on the Council as may have been delegated by the Council to such committee and may revoke such delegation.

(3) In any case where a single member is exercising such delegated powers, under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), if he is not in agreement with a recommendation in writing of the appropriate public officer he shall refer such recommendation to the appropriate Select Committee or to the Council, and the Committee or the Council, as the case may be, shall decide whether the recommendation be accepted, modified or rejected.

(4) When powers are delegated to a public officer in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) it shall not be necessary to specify an officer by name in the resolution delegating such powers and such powers may be properly delegated to the person for the time being holding a designated public office.

(5) No delegation made under the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) shall preclude the Council or a committee of the Council, as the case may be, from exercising or performing at any time any of the powers or functions so delegated.

61. Failure to comply with any written order of a member of the Council, of a committee of the Council, or of a member of a committee of the Council, duly empowered under section 60, such order having been signed by the secretary of the Council, and failure to comply with any order of a public officer duly empowered under section 60 shall be punishable in the same manner as if such order had been made by the Council.

Enforcement of orders.

62. No matter or thing done, by any member of the Council or of a committee of the Council, bona fide for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance or of any other enactment conferring powers on the Council, shall subject such member personally to any action liability claim or demand whatsoever.

Protection of members.
