

which may be necessary to establish the qualification of such person for occupation of a dwelling in a cottage resettlement area or in a resettlement estate.

(2) The competent authority, or such authorized officer, may write down such questions and the replies to such questions or any of them and may require such person to make such declaration as he may deem necessary as to the truth of such replies.

(3) The competent authority or an authorized officer may complete in respect of such person a screening form in such form as shall be prescribed by regulations made under section 51, with such additions as he shall consider necessary.

(4) The competent authority, or such authorized officer, may require such person to produce to him such evidence as he thinks fit in support of the statements and answers made by him.

False statement.

21. Any person who makes any statement to a competent authority or to an authorized officer in reply to any question put to him in accordance with the provisions of section 20, or makes a declaration to a competent authority or to an authorized officer, which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true, shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction shall be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

Issue of resettlement card.

22. (1) If a competent authority or an authorized officer is satisfied that a person is eligible for accommodation in a cottage resettlement area or in a resettlement estate, he may issue to him a resettlement card in accordance with such form as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 51.

(2) Any person who—

(a) defaces, alters or destroys any resettlement card; or

(b) has in his possession any resettlement card which has been defaced or altered; or

(c) not being an officer authorized by the competent authority, has in his possession without lawful authority or excuse any resettlement card other than a card on which his name appears, shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction shall be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

PART IV.

Resettlement estates.

23. (1) The Governor may appoint any person by name or office to be a competent authority for the purpose of this Part of this Ordinance.

Appointment of competent authority.

(2) Such appointment may be made in respect of the whole or any part of the Colony, but shall be deemed to extend to the whole of the Colony unless otherwise expressed.

24. (1) The Governor may set aside as a resettlement estate any area of Crown land for the resettlement of such persons as by reason of their association with the Colony or otherwise appear to him to merit assistance.

Setting aside resettlement estates.

(2) A notification of any such setting aside shall be given in the Gazette by reference to a map or plan of the land set aside signed by the Director of Public Works and deposited in the Land Office or, in the case of any such area in the New Territories, in the office of the District Commissioner, New Territories.

(3) The areas listed in the First Schedule shall be deemed to have been set aside by the Governor as resettlement estates, maps of which, dated the 29th day of April, 1958, have been deposited in the Land Office or in the office of the District Commissioner, New Territories, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2).

First Schedule.

25. A competent authority may erect on any resettlement estate any building or structure which he may deem necessary or expedient for the purpose for which such area was set aside.

Erection of buildings by competent authority.

26. (1) Any building which, at the date of the coming into operation of this Ordinance, is in an area designated in the First Schedule shall be deemed to have been erected by a competent authority in accordance with the provisions of section 25, and this Part of this Ordinance shall apply to such building as if it had been erected by a competent authority in accordance with that section.

Existing buildings, First Schedule.

(2) Any person who is in occupation of any such building at the date of coming into operation of this Ordinance under any permit or other document lawfully issued in accordance with the provisions of any enactment relating to the clearance and resettlement of squatters shall be deemed to be in occupation thereof as a tenant in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and under a tenancy card issued in accordance with the provisions of section 28, and the exhibition by such person of the permit or other document issued under any such enactment shall constitute the exhibition of a tenancy card in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section 30 so long as such person complies with the provisions of subsection (2) of that section.

Letting of buildings.

27. (1) A competent authority may let, by tenancy card under his hand or under the hand of an authorized officer, for any term or for any period, any building or any part of a building in a resettlement estate, subject to the payment therefor of such rent as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 51.

(2) A tenancy card shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by such regulations and shall be in English and in Chinese.

(3) There shall be affixed to each tenancy card a group photograph of the tenant and the dependants and each tenancy card shall contain a list of the dependants.

Commencement of tenancy.

28. (1) Before any person becomes a tenant of a building in a resettlement estate, he shall be given, by the competent authority or by an authorized officer, a completed tenancy card.

(2) If a person accepts a tenancy card from the competent authority or from an authorized officer and enters into occupation of the premises to which the tenancy card relates, he shall become, from the time when he enters into occupation of the premises, a tenant thereof, subject to the terms and conditions of tenancy set forth on the tenancy card and to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any regulations made under section 51.

(3) A competent authority, in his absolute discretion, may make a tenancy card subject to any special conditions not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance or of any such regulations:

Provided that—

- (i) no special condition shall impose a rent greater than the rent which might be charged in accordance with such regulations; and
- (ii) a copy of all such special conditions, in English and in Chinese, shall be inserted in or attached to the tenancy card to form part of the tenancy card or shall be handed to the tenant at the time of imposition of the special conditions.

(4) If any dispute shall arise in respect of any difference between the English version and the Chinese version of a tenancy card, the English version shall prevail.

29. (1) A competent authority may terminate any tenancy created or deemed to have been created in accordance with the provisions of section 28 for breach of condition, whether general or special, or may give such notice to quit as may be provided for in the general conditions and thereupon the tenant and the dependants, if any, as from the date from which such revocation takes effect or from the date of expiry of the notice, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be trespassers and shall be liable to eviction in manner provided in section 35.

Termination of tenancy.

(2) No court shall entertain any proceedings claiming relief in relation to the termination of a tenancy under subsection (1).

30. (1) Every tenant shall cause to be exhibited in a prominent place in the premises occupied by him in a resettlement estate the tenancy card issued to him.

Exhibition of tenancy card.

(2) Every tenant shall cause to be affixed to the tenancy card the official receipt for the last payment of rent made in respect of the premises.

(3) A tenant who contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and, on summary conviction, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars.

31. Any person who without lawful authority or excuse—

- (a) fails to produce on demand his tenancy card to a competent authority or to an authorized officer; or Offences in relation to tenancy card.

- (b) defaces, alters or destroys any tenancy card; or
- (c) has in his possession any tenancy card which has been defaced or altered; or
- (d) removes any tenancy card from the premises to which it relates,

shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction shall be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

Amendment of tenancy card.

32. (1) A competent authority may at any time add to or delete from a tenancy card the name and photograph of any dependant thereon and may cancel a tenancy card or any other similar card or permit issued under any other enactment relating to the clearance and resettlement of squatters and may issue a new tenancy card in substitution therefor.

(2) When the name or the photograph of any dependant has been so deleted such person shall thereupon cease to be a dependant and from thenceforth shall be deemed to be a trespasser and liable to eviction in manner provided in section 35.

Tres-
passers.

33. Any person other than a competent authority, an authorized officer, a tenant or a dependant who remains between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. in a dwelling in a resettlement estate, whether by permission of the tenant or of a dependant or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a trespasser and shall be liable to eviction in manner provided in section 35.

Inspection
by authorized officers, etc.

34. (1) A competent authority or authorized officer at any time in pursuance of his duties may enter and inspect any premises in a resettlement estate.

(2) Any person who refuses access to a competent authority or to an authorized officer to any part of any such premises or obstructs a competent authority or an authorized officer in the execution of his duties shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction shall be liable to a fine of five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for three months.

Trespassers
to quit.

35. (1) Any person who is a trespasser or is deemed to be a trespasser under the provisions of section 29, 32, or 33 in any dwelling in any resettlement estate shall immediately quit the dwelling when ordered to do so by any authorized officer.

(2) Any person so ordered who does not forthwith obey such order may be summarily evicted by an authorized officer who may use such force as may be reasonably necessary to evict such person from such dwelling and for that purpose invoke the assistance of the police and of any other authorized officer.

PART V.

Cottage resettlement areas.

36. (1) The Governor may appoint any person by name or office to be a competent authority for the purpose of this Part of this Ordinance.

Appointment of competent authority.

(2) Such appointment may be made in respect of the whole or any part of the Colony, but shall be deemed to extend to the whole of the Colony unless otherwise expressed.

37. (1) The Governor may set aside as a cottage resettlement area any area of Crown land for the resettlement of such persons as by reason of their association with the Colony or otherwise appear to him to merit assistance.

Setting
aside cottage resettlement
areas.

(2) A notification of any such setting aside shall be given in the Gazette by reference to a map or plan of the land set aside signed by the Director of Public Works and deposited in the Land Office or, in the case of any such area in the New Territories, in the office of the District Commissioner, New Territories.

(3) The areas listed in the Second Schedule shall be deemed to have been set aside by the Governor as cottage resettlement areas, maps of which, dated the 29th day of April, 1958, have been deposited in the Land Office or in the office of the District Commissioner, New Territories, in accordance with subsection (2).

Second
Schedule.

38. The Buildings Ordinance, 1955, and sections 10, 12, 13 and 43 to 47 of the Public Health (Sanitation) Ordinance, 1935, shall not apply to a cottage resettlement area.

Inapplicability of Ordinance
No. 68 of 1955 and sections 10,
12, 13 and 43 to 47 of Ordinance
No. 15 of 1935.

Erection of buildings by competent authority.

39. A competent authority may erect on any cottage resettlement area any building or structure which he may deem necessary or expedient for the purpose for which such area was set aside.

Erection of buildings other than by a competent authority.

40. (1) A competent authority may authorize by permit in writing the erection by any person of any building in any cottage resettlement area subject to the conditions as set forth in such permit.

(2) An erection permit may stipulate that the building may be occupied by the person who has erected it or by any person who has been authorized by the competent authority to occupy such building and may permit the person who has erected the building to let the building or to sell the building whether for a cash payment or by a hire-purchase agreement in a form to be approved by the competent authority, to a person authorized to occupy such building in accordance with the provisions of section 43.

(3) Any person who has been authorized to erect a building in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) who lets or sells or otherwise disposes of such building other than to a person who has been authorized to occupy such building in accordance with the provisions of section 43 shall be guilty of an offence and upon summary conviction shall be liable to a fine of five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

(4) No fee shall be payable for an erection permit.

Existing buildings.

41. (1) Any building which, at the date of the coming into operation of this Ordinance, is in an area designated in the Second Schedule and has been erected under or by reason of any authority or permission given under any enactment relating to the clearance or resettlement of squatters shall be deemed to have been authorized by a competent authority under the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance and this Part of this Ordinance shall apply to such building as if an erection permit had been granted in respect of such building under the provisions of section 40.

(2) Any such building in respect of which at the date of coming into operation of this Ordinance a rent is payable to the Crown, shall be deemed to have been let to the occupant in accordance with the provisions of section 48 and this Part of this Ordinance shall apply to such building as if it had been so let.

(3) Any person who at the date of coming into operation of this Ordinance is in occupation of any such building as is described in subsection (1) under any permit or other document lawfully issued in accordance with the provisions of any enactment relating to the clearance and resettlement of squatters shall be deemed to be in occupation thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and under an occupation permit granted in accordance with section 43, and the exhibition by such person of the permit or other document issued under such enactment shall constitute the exhibition of an occupation permit required by subsection (1) of section 46 so long as such person complies with the provisions of subsection (2) of that section.

42. If any person who occupies a building in a cottage resettlement area under a hire-purchase agreement or rent agreement in a form approved by the Urban Council which he has entered into with a person who is beneficially entitled to such building defaults in payment of any instalment or rent due under such agreement a competent authority may cancel the occupation permit in respect of such building by seven days notice in writing and the provisions of section 50 shall apply as if the occupation permit had been cancelled for breach of condition :

Hire-purchase or rent agreement.

Provided that if a competent authority cancels an occupation permit in accordance with the provisions of this section he may require the person to whom the instalments due under a hire-purchase agreement should have been paid to refund to the person who should have paid such hire-purchase instalments such proportion of payments already made in respect of such building as the competent authority shall consider just.

43. (1) A competent authority may authorize, by occupation permit under his hand or under the hand of an authorized officer, the occupation by any person and his dependants of any building in a cottage resettlement area, subject to the payment of such permit fee therefor as may be prescribed in regulations made under section 51.

Occupation of buildings.

(2) An occupation permit shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by such regulations and shall be in English and in Chinese.

(3) There shall be affixed to each occupation permit a group photograph of the permittee and of the dependants and each occupation permit shall contain a list of the dependants.

Commencement of
occupation.

44. (1) Before any person becomes an occupant of a building in a cottage resettlement area he shall be given, by the competent authority or by an authorized officer, a completed occupation permit.

(2) If a person accepts an occupation permit from the competent authority or an authorized officer and enters into occupation of the premises to which the occupation permit relates, he shall become from the time when he enters into occupation of the premises, a permittee thereof subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the occupation permit and to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any regulations made under section 51.

(3) A competent authority, in his absolute discretion, may make an occupation permit subject to any special conditions not being inconsistent with the provisions of such regulations:

Provided that—

- (i) no special condition shall impose a fee greater than the fee which might be charged in accordance with the provisions of such regulations; and
- (ii) a copy of all such special conditions, in English and in Chinese, shall be inserted in or attached to the occupation permit to form part of the occupation permit and shall be handed to the permittee at the time of imposition of the special conditions.

Revocation
of occupation permit.

45. (1) A competent authority may revoke any occupation permit issued in accordance with the provisions of section 43 for breach of condition, whether general or special, or in accordance with such conditions.

(2) On any such revocation the permittee and the dependants, as from the date on which the revocation takes effect, shall be deemed to be trespassers and shall be liable to eviction in manner provided in section 50.

(3) On the issue of a notice revoking the occupation permit, the permittee may remove and dispose of any of the materials of which the building is comprised, subject to the rights of any person thereto.

(4) No court shall entertain any proceedings claiming relief in relation to the revocation of an occupation permit under subsection (1).

(5) On the date on which the revocation takes place, the building and all the materials of which it was comprised shall be deemed to be the property of the Crown free from the rights of the permittee but subject to the rights of any other person:

Provided that the competent authority in his absolute discretion and subject to the rights of any other person, may permit a permittee to remove such materials after such date.

(6) Notwithstanding that by reason of the breach of any condition, an occupation permit becomes liable to revocation a competent authority in his discretion may waive such breach and may refrain from revoking such occupation permit upon such conditions as the competent authority shall consider necessary.

(7) If any building in a cottage resettlement area has come into the possession of a competent authority by reason of the revocation of an occupation permit, the competent authority may make the occupation of such building by any other person subject to the payment by such other person to the former permittee or to any other person of such sum as the competent authority shall consider just.

46. (1) Every permittee shall cause to be exhibited in a prominent place in the building occupied by him in a cottage resettlement area the occupation permit issued to him.

Exhibition
of occupation permit.

(2) There shall be affixed to the occupation permit—

- (a) a group photograph of the permittee and of the dependants permitted to occupy the building to which the occupation permit relates, which photograph shall be signed by a competent authority or authorized officer; and
- (b) the official receipt for the last payment of occupation fee made in respect of the building.

(3) Any permittee who contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and, upon summary conviction, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars.

Offences in relation to occupation permit.

47. Any person who—

- (a) fails to produce on demand his occupation permit to a competent authority or authorized officer; or
- (b) defaces, alters or destroys any occupation permit; or
- (c) has in his possession any occupation permit which has been defaced or altered; or
- (d) without lawful authority removes any occupation permit from the building to which it relates,

shall be guilty of an offence and, on summary conviction, shall be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

Amendment of occupation permit.

48. (1) The competent authority may at any time add to or delete from an occupation permit the name and photograph of any dependant thereon and may cancel an occupation permit or any similar card or permit issued under any other enactment relating to the clearance and resettlement of squatters and may issue a new occupation permit in substitution therefor.

(2) When the name and photograph of a dependant has been so deleted, such person shall thereupon cease to be a dependant and from thenceforth shall be deemed to be a trespasser and liable to eviction in manner provided in section 50.

Letting of buildings.

49. (1) A competent authority may let by tenancy card under his hand or under the hand of an authorized officer, for any term or for any period any building in a cottage resettlement area, possession of which has lawfully come into the hands of the Crown or which has been erected out of monies provided out of the general revenue of the Colony and which has not been disposed of by sale or otherwise, subject to the payment therefor, in addition to the permit fee in respect thereof payable under section 43, of such rent as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 51, in the same manner as he is authorized, by section 27, to let any building in a resettlement estate.

(2) The provisions of sections 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 32 shall apply to a tenant of any such building in a cottage resettlement area and to his tenancy and to the tenancy card issued to him in the same manner as these sections apply to a tenant of a building in a resettlement estate, to his tenancy and to the tenancy card issued to him.

(3) Any person who is in occupation of any such building in a cottage resettlement area at the date of the coming into operation of this Ordinance under any permit or other document lawfully issued in accordance with the provisions of any enactment relating to the clearance or resettlement of squatters and is paying a rent or fee therefor to the Crown in addition to the permit fee payable therefor shall be deemed to be in occupation thereof as a tenant in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and under a tenancy card issued to him in accordance with the provisions of this section and the exhibition by such person of the permit or other documents issued under any such enactment will constitute the exhibition of a tenancy card in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section 30 so long as such person complies with the provisions of subsection (2) of that section.

50. (1) Any person who is a trespasser or is deemed to be a trespasser under the provisions of section 29, 32, 45 or 48 in any dwelling in any cottage resettlement area shall immediately quit the dwelling when ordered to do so by any authorized officer.

Trespassers to quit.

(2) Any person so ordered who does not forthwith obey such order may be summarily evicted by an authorized officer who may use such force as may be reasonably necessary to evict such person from such dwelling and for that purpose invoke the assistance of the police and of any other authorized officer.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of five hundred dollars.

PART VI.

Regulations.

51. (1) The Governor in Council may by regulation prescribe or provide for—

Power of Governor in Council to make regulations.

- (a) the sanitation of resettlement estates and cottage resettlement areas;

- (b) the health of persons within resettlement estates and cottage resettlement areas;
- (c) the manner in which application for permits to erect buildings in cottage resettlement areas shall be made;
- (d) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which buildings in cottage resettlement areas shall be erected and maintained;
- (e) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which trades, businesses, professions and occupations may be carried on in resettlement estates and cottage resettlement areas;
- (f) the inspection of resettlement estates and cottage resettlement areas and of buildings therein;
- (g) the rents to be paid by occupants of buildings in resettlement estates and cottage resettlement areas;
- (h) the fees to be paid for the occupation of buildings in cottage resettlement areas;
- (i) the forms to be used in connexion with this Ordinance;
- (j) generally carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) Such regulations may provide that the contravention of any regulation shall constitute an offence and may prescribe penalties for any offence not exceeding a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months and may provide, in addition, for the forfeiture to the Crown of any article in respect of which the offence has been committed.

No. 22 OF 1958.

I assent.

Governor.

26th June, 1958.

An Ordinance to validate the collection of stamp duties on certain instruments affecting land in the New Territories to which Part II of the New Territories Ordinance does not apply.

[27th June, 1958.]

WHEREAS—

Preamble.

- (a) by virtue of regulation 2 of the Stamp (N.T.) (Exemption and Modification) Regulations, 1952, all instruments, except conveyances on sale and voluntary dispositions inter vivos, affecting land in the New Territories were exempted from stamp duty;
- (b) by virtue of regulation 3 of the said regulations, conveyances on sale and voluntary dispositions inter vivos affecting land in the New Territories not being land in New Kowloon were made chargeable with the stamp duties specified in the Stamp Ordinance and the Schedule thereto subject to the modifications shown in the second column of the Schedule to the said regulations;

- (c) the aforesaid exemption and modifications were never intended to extend to any instrument affecting land in the New Territories to which Part II of the New Territories Ordinance does not apply;
- (d) the Collector of Stamp Revenue has since collected from time to time stamp duties on instruments affecting land in the New Territories to which Part II of the New Territories Ordinance does not apply at the rates specified in the Stamp Ordinance, without applying such exemption and modifications;
- (e) the Stamp (N.T.) (Exemption and Modification) (Amendment) Regulations, 1958, make provision to exclude all instruments affecting land in the New Territories to which Part II of the New Territories Ordinance does not apply from the aforesaid exemption and modifications;
- (f) it is expedient to validate the collection of stamp duties on such instruments since the coming into operation of the Stamp (N.T.) (Exemption and Modification) Regulations, 1952.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp Duty Collection (Validation) Ordinance, 1958.

Validation. 2. All stamp duties collected by the Collector of Stamp Revenue since the coming into operation of the Stamp (N.T.) (Exemption and Modification) Regulations, 1952, on any instrument affecting land in the New Territories to which Part II of the New Territories Ordinance does not apply shall be deemed to have been lawfully collected in all cases where the same would have been lawfully collected if the Stamp (N.T.) (Exemption and Modification) (Amendment) Regulations, 1958, had been in operation at the date of the collection.

No. 23 OF 1958.

I assent.

Governor.

10th July, 1958.

An Ordinance to amend the law relating to the acquisition and holding of land by charities and to make provision for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Charities (Land Acquisition) Ordinance, 1958, and shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Gazette.

Short title
and commencement.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—“assurance” includes a gift, grant, conveyance, assignment, appointment, lease, transfer, settlement, mortgage, charge, incumbrance, devise, bequest and every other assurance by deed, will or other instrument;

Interpretation.

"charitable purpose" means any of the following purposes—

- (a) the relief of poverty;
- (b) the advancement of art, education, learning, literature, science or research;
- (c) the making of provision for the cure or mitigation or prevention of, or for the care of persons suffering from or subject to, any disease or infirmity or disability affecting human beings (including the care of women before, during and after child-birth);
- (d) the advancement of religion;
- (e) any ecclesiastical purpose;
- (f) the promotion of the moral, social and physical well-being of the community;
- (g) any other purpose beneficial to the community not falling under any of the preceding paragraphs;

"charity" means—

- (a) any body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, established primarily for any charitable purpose; and
- (b) any body corporate incorporated by any Ordinance specified in the First Schedule; and
- (c) any body of trustees incorporated under the Registered Trustees Incorporation Ordinance, 1958;

"land" includes any estate or interest in land, buildings, messuages and tenements of what nature or kind soever;

"mortgage" includes any mortgage or charge legal or equitable of or upon land;

"will" includes codicil.

First
Schedule.

3. (1) Save as in this Ordinance expressly provided and notwithstanding the provisions of any other enactment, land shall not be assured to or for the benefit of or acquired or possessed by or on behalf of or for the benefit of any charity or assured, acquired or possessed for any charitable purpose, otherwise than under the authority of a licence granted by the Governor, and if any land is so assured, acquired or possessed otherwise than as aforesaid, such land shall be liable to forfeiture to the Crown from the date of such assurance, acquisition or possession, and the Crown may enter on and hold the land accordingly.

Prohibition against acquisition of land by charities except by licence
of the Governor.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Crown's right of re-entry shall be enforceable under and in accordance with the provisions of the Crown Rights (Re-entry) Ordinance and the provisions of that Ordinance shall apply as if such right of re-entry had arisen by reason of the breach of a covenant in a Crown lease: (Cap. 126).

Provided that where an applicant for relief applies to the Court under section 3 of that Ordinance, no relief shall be granted by the Court except where the applicant satisfies the Court that the land in question was not assured, acquired or possessed in contravention of any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

4. (1) The Governor may on application grant a licence for the acquisition and holding of land by any charity or for any charitable purpose, and any such licence shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as the Governor may think fit to impose.

Issue of licence to hold land.

(2) A licence granted under this section shall be in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Second
Schedule.

(3) A fee of twenty dollars shall be paid on the issue of any licence granted under this section.

Land
assured
by will.

5. Land may be assured by will to or for the benefit of any charity or for any charitable purpose but, notwithstanding anything in the will contained to the contrary, such land shall be sold within one year after the death of the testator, unless a licence to hold the land is granted under section 4.

Bequest for
of land.

6. Any personal estate bequeathed by will to or for the benefit of any charity or for any charitable purpose and directed to be laid out in the purchase or the acquisition of land by or for the benefit of such charity or for such charitable purpose shall be held by or for the benefit of such charity or for such charitable purpose as though there had been no such direction, unless a licence to acquire and hold such land is granted under section 4.

Application
of sections 5 and 6.

7. This Ordinance shall not apply to the will of a testator dying before the commencement of this Ordinance.

Mortgages.

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, moneys belonging to any charity or held for any charitable purpose may be invested on mortgage, without the land which forms the subject of the mortgage being deemed to be land assured, acquired or possessed in contravention of the provisions of that section :

Provided always that in every case in which the equity of redemption of any land comprised in any such mortgage shall by foreclosure or otherwise become barred or released, the land shall thenceforth be held in trust to be sold and converted into money, and shall be sold accordingly within six months after the date upon which such equity of redemption became barred or released unless a licence to hold such land is granted under section 4.

Application
to certain bodies corporate.

9. It is hereby further declared that in the case of each of the bodies corporate incorporated by the Ordinances specified in Part II of the First Schedule, the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply in place of any restriction upon the acquisition or holding of land contained in the Ordinance under which the body corporate is incorporated.

10. Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect any land assured to or for the benefit of or acquired or possessed by or on behalf of or for the benefit of any charity or assured, acquired or possessed for any charitable purpose before the commencement of this Ordinance including any right or interest comprised in or arising out of any mortgage executed before the commencement of this Ordinance.

Saving in
assurances

HONG KONG

No. 24 OF 1958.

I assent.

Governor.

10th July, 1958.

An Ordinance to facilitate the incorporation of trustees appointed by certain bodies, associations and communities of persons and to make provision for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Registered Trustees Incorporation Ordinance, 1958, and shall come into operation on the day appointed for the commencement of the Charities (Land Acquisition) Ordinance, 1958.

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

“body of persons” means—

- (a) any community of persons bound together by custom, religion, kinship, nationality or regional or local interests; or
- (b) any body or association of persons established for any charitable purpose within the meaning of section 2 of the Charities (Land Acquisition) Ordinance, 1958, the objects of which in either case do not involve the acquisition of gain by such community of persons or body or association of persons or its individual members, as the case may be;

“certificate” means a certificate of incorporation granted under section 4 of this Ordinance;

“corporation” means trustees incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and their successors in office;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of Companies.

Application
for certificate of incorporation.

3. (1) The duly appointed trustees, who shall in number be not less than three nor more than seven, for the time being of any body of persons may apply to the Registrar for a certificate of incorporation.

(2) Every application shall be in writing signed by the trustees and shall contain the several particulars specified in the First Schedule, or such of them as are applicable to the case, and shall be franked denoting payment of the prescribed fee.

First
Schedule.

(3) The Registrar may require such declaration or other evidence in verification of the statements and particulars in the application, and such other particulars, information and evidence, if any, as he may think fit.

4. (1) If the Governor, having regard to the nature and objects and other circumstances of a body of persons in respect of which application has been made for a certificate in accordance with the provisions of section 3, and having regard to the public interest, considers the incorporation of the trustees of such body expedient, he may, upon payment to the Registrar of the prescribed fee therefor, grant a certificate of incorporation, and such certificate shall be subject to such conditions or directions as may be inserted therein; and the Governor may at any time cancel or amend such certificate.

Grant of a certificate
of incorporation.

(2) From the date of the grant of the certificate, the trustees and their successors in office shall be a body corporate by the name set forth in the certificate and in that name shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, and shall have and use a common seal.

(3) Subject to the conditions or directions (if any) inserted in the certificate and to the provisions of the Charities (Land Acquisition) Ordinance, 1958, the corporation shall have power to acquire and hold and by instrument under its common seal to convey, assign, demise, surrender, exchange, mortgage or otherwise deal with any movable or immovable property in such and the like manner and subject to such restrictions and provisions as such trustees might without such incorporation acquire, hold, convey, assign, demise, surrender, exchange, mortgage or otherwise deal with the same for the purposes of such body of persons.

5. (1) When the Governor has granted, cancelled or amended a certificate, the Registrar shall cause notice thereof to be published in the Gazette.

Notice of incorporation and validity of certificate.

(2) A certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all preliminary requirements of this Ordinance in respect of such incorporation have been complied with, and the date of such certificate shall be deemed to be the date on which incorporation took place.

Common
seal.

6. (1) The common seal of a corporation shall bear such device as may be approved by the Registrar, and shall bear the name of the corporation.

(2) The seal shall not be changed except with the consent of the Registrar, who, if satisfied that such change is necessary or desirable, may upon payment of the prescribed fee give his consent thereto.

Vesting
of land.

7. Where any land belongs to or is held in trust for a body of persons and trustees of that body have been incorporated under the provisions of this Ordinance, the person whose name appears in the Land Office registers as the owner thereof, shall, upon demand made by the corporation, cause the land to be assigned to the corporation, and upon assignment the land shall vest in the corporation in trust for such body of persons :

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to absolve the corporation from compliance with the requirements of the Charities (Land Acquisition) Ordinance, 1958, or with any conditions or directions inserted in the certificate of incorporation.

Change of trustees.

8. Where a certificate has been granted, vacancies in the number of the trustees shall from time to time be filled so far as is required by the constitution, settlement or rules of the body of persons or by such conditions or directions as may be contained in the certificate, by such legal means as would have been available for the appointment of new trustees of such body of persons if no certificate had been granted, or otherwise as may be required by such conditions or directions aforesaid.

Notification of change of principal office or trustees.

9. (1) Notice of any change in the situation of the principal office shall be given not later than twenty-eight days after the change, to the Registrar.

(2) Within twenty-eight days after the appointment of each new member of a corporation, a notification thereof by the corporation containing particulars of the full name and aliases (if any), residential address, occupation and nationality of the new member, together with such evidence as the Registrar may require of such appointment and the consent in writing of such new member to his appointment, shall be delivered to the Registrar.

(3) Within twenty-eight days after the death, resignation or removal of a member of a corporation, a notification thereof by the corporation shall be delivered to the Registrar together with such evidence as the Registrar may require.

(4) The Registrar, if satisfied with the evidence produced to him under this section, shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, register the change in the address of the principal office or the appointment of any new member and the death, resignation or removal of any member who has died, resigned or been removed, as the case may be.

(5) Where any corporation fails to give notice as required by this section, every member of such corporation shall be guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars :

Provided that it shall be a good defence for any member to prove that he did not know and could not readily have learnt of such change or in the case of a newly appointed member that he did not give his consent to such appointment and did not act as a member.

10. (1) The Registrar shall maintain a register of all corporations and shall have custody of all applications for certificates of incorporation of such corporations, and all documents submitted in connexion therewith.

Registers
and documents.

(2) Such register shall be open to inspection by the general public during office hours on payment of the prescribed fee.

(3) Upon payment of the prescribed fee, any person may inspect any document registered with or kept by the Registrar under the provisions of this Ordinance and may require a copy or extract of any such document to be made and certified under the hand of the Registrar.

11. After a certificate has been granted under the provisions of this Ordinance, all trustees constituting the corporation in respect of which the certificate has been granted, notwithstanding their incorporation, shall be chargeable for such property as comes or has come into their hands, and shall be answerable and

of trustees
notwithstanding incorporation.

accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects, and defaults and for the due administration of the trusts and property in the same manner and to the same extent as if no such incorporation had been effected.

Gifts.

12. After the incorporation of the trustees of any body of persons in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, every donation, gift and disposition of property theretofore lawfully made but not having taken effect, or thereafter lawfully made by deed, will or otherwise to or in favour of such body or the trustees thereof, or otherwise for the purposes thereof, shall take effect as if the same had been made to or in favour of the corporation or otherwise for the like purposes.

Contracts.

13. Every contract made or entered into by the trustees of a body of persons which would be valid and binding according to the constitution, settlement or rules of such body of persons if no such incorporation had taken place as aforesaid, shall be valid and binding although the same has not been made or entered into under the common seal of the corporation.

Enforcement of conditions and directions.

14. All conditions and directions inserted in any certificate shall be binding upon and performed or observed by the corporation as trusts of the body of persons for which it is trustee.

Fees.

Second Schedule.

15. (1) The fees payable under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be as set out in the Second Schedule hereto, and shall be taken in the office of the Registrar and paid into the general revenue of the Colony.

(2) The Governor in Council may from time to time amend the Second Schedule :

Provided that no such order shall come into operation until it has been approved by resolution of the Legislative Council.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

[s. 3(2).]

Passed the Legislative Council of Hong Kong, this 9th day of July, 1958.

Deputy Clerk of Councils.

(Secretariat BL2/3220/54)

HONG KONG

No. 26 OF 1958.

I assent.

Governor.

21st August, 1958.

An Ordinance to conserve the resources of pearl oysters in the Colony and to regulate the culture of pearls.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Pearl Culture (Control) Ordinance, 1958, and shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Gazette.

Short title
and commencement.

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “cultivation area” means any area declared under section 5 to be an area within which live pearl oysters may be kept for the culture of pearls therein;
- “cultivate” in relation to pearl oysters includes any operation for the purpose of promoting the growth of such oysters;
- “culture” in relation to pearl oysters includes any operation directed to the propagation of pearls in pearl oysters by the process of inserting foreign bodies into such oysters in order to promote therein the formation of pearls;
- “Director” means the Director of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry;
- “licensee” means the holder of a licence issued for the purposes of this Ordinance by the Director under the hand of a public officer appointed by him so to do;
- “pearl oyster” means an oyster of the genus Pteria or of any of the genera and species of oyster commonly known as “Penguin” or “Wing” and any other genus or species of oyster which the Director declares by notice in the Gazette to be a genus or species of pearl oyster;
- “process” means the extraction of pearls from pearl oysters and any subsequent operation, including polishing, leading to the preparation of the extracted pearl for marketing;
- “raft” includes any device or structure used or intended to be used for the cultivation of pearl oysters;
- “vessel” means any ship, junk, sampan, boat or other description of craft within the waters of the Colony, but does not include registered ocean going ships nor any ships or vessels belonging to Her Majesty or the Government of any foreign power or the Government of any Commonwealth Country or the Government of the Republic of Ireland.

3. (1) The Director may keep in his custody in sealed bottles type specimens of pearl oysters which when produced by the Director or on his behalf in any court shall be presumed, without further proof, to be type specimens of such oysters.

Production
in evidence of type specimens of pearl
oysters.

(2) Any member of the public shall on application to the Director be entitled during office hours to examine such type specimens free of charge.

4. (1) The Governor may appoint in writing any number of public officers to be—

Appointment of officers.

(a) fisheries inspectors (漁業督察); and

(b) assistant fisheries inspectors (漁業副督察).

(2) Appointments made under this section may be made to give effect to the purposes of this Ordinance generally or may be limited to such purposes as may be specified in the appointment.

5. The Director may, from time to time by notification in the Gazette, declare any area within the waters of the Colony to be an area within which live pearl oysters may be cultivated for the culture of pearls.

Prescription of cultivation
areas.

6. (1) Upon payment of such fees as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 16, the Director may grant to any person applying therefor—

Licensing.

(a) a temporary licence for a period of six months to enable the Director to assess the competence of the holder thereof to cultivate pearl oysters or to culture pearls; or

(b) a licence for a period of five years (inclusive of the duration of any temporary licence granted to the same person under paragraph (a)) renewable for further periods of five years each.

- (2) Every licence granted under this section shall—
- (a) specify the cultivation area in respect of which it is granted; and
 - (b) be granted subject to any regulations made under section 16; and
 - (c) be granted subject to any conditions which may be specified in such licence by the Director.
- (3) Any licence granted under this section shall be liable to cancellation by the Director—
- (a) upon the breach of any condition thereof; or
 - (b) if the Director is satisfied that the licensee is for any reason unable or incompetent to carry out any of the purposes for which the licence was granted or has failed to discharge any of his duties under this Ordinance or any regulations made thereunder.
- (4) No licence granted under this section shall be construed as granting any right to occupy or to use, except for the purpose of mooring rafts, any land, whether the same be covered by water or not, or as granting any right to the exclusive use of any waters except in so far as the purpose aforesaid requires.

Director
empowered to issue instructions as to cultivation
of pearl
oysters.

7. (1) The Director may, from time to time, issue to all or any licensees instructions in writing as to any matter concerning the cultivation of pearl oysters or the culture of pearls therein.
- (2) In addition to any condition which may under paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 6 be specified in any licence granted under that section, it shall be a condition of every such licence that the licensee shall carry out, or cause to be carried out, to the satisfaction of the Director, within the cultivation area in respect of which he is licensed, any instructions issued to him under this section.

8. (1) Except under and in accordance with a licence granted under this Ordinance, no person shall, within the waters of the Colony—

Pearl
oysters
not to be cultivated except under licence.

- (a) cultivate any pearl oyster; or
- (b) culture any pearl.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable—

- (a) for a first offence, to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve months; and
- (b) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of two hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the temporary removal, for such period as may be necessary in the circumstances, of any raft from a cultivation area to a place of safety owing to stress of weather or to the presence within such area of the phenomenon commonly known as "red tide" or to the imminence of either.

9. (1) No person shall collect, sell or have in his possession for sale, or be a party to the collection or sale, of any pearl oyster found within the waters of the Colony which measures less than 65 millimeters when measured through its thickest part across the valves through a plane drawn at right angles to the hinge:

Conservation of pearl
oysters.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the collection or sale of pearl oysters of any size which have been cultivated under a licence granted under section 6.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable—

- (a) for a first offence, to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve months; and
- (b) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of two hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

10. Any person who—

- (a) without the consent of the owner thereof, wilfully moves, damages or otherwise interferes with any raft; or

Protection of oyster beds and rafts.

- (b) having reasonable grounds to believe that damage may result, wilfully deposits, or causes or suffers to be deposited, either on land or in the sea, any chemical or other substance or thing in such a place or in such a manner as to injure or to be likely to injure any pearl oyster in any cultivation area or to pollute or to be likely to pollute the waters in any such area, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable upon conviction—

- (i) for a first offence, to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for twelve months; and
(ii) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of two hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Property
in pearl
oysters.

11. All pearl oysters which are within the boundaries of any cultivation area, whether collected or not, shall be the absolute property of the licensee, if any, of such area.

Power of search and seizure.

12. Any fisheries inspector or assistant fisheries inspector may without warrant—

- (a) board any vessel and search the same and every part thereof; and
(b) seize, remove and retain any pearl oysters or pearls in respect of which he finds or has reasonable cause to suspect that an offence against this Ordinance has been committed, and, in the case of any such pearl oysters which are alive, may return them to their natural habitat.

Powers of arrest.

13. (1) It shall be lawful for any fisheries inspector or any assistant fisheries inspector to apprehend without warrant any person whom he may reasonably suspect of having contravened any of the provisions of subsection (1) of section 8 or of section 10.

(2) If any person forcibly resists an endeavour to arrest him under this section or attempts to evade such arrest, the person effecting the arrest may use all reasonable means necessary to effect the arrest.

(3) Every person apprehended under this section shall, as soon as circumstances permit, be delivered into the custody of a police officer.

14. (1) It shall be lawful for a magistrate to order to be forfeited to the Crown any pearl oysters or pearls with respect to which an offence against this Ordinance or any regulations made thereunder has been committed, whether any person has been convicted of such offence or not, and upon the making of such order for forfeiture all such pearl oysters or pearls, as the case may be, shall become the property of the Crown free from all rights of any other person. Forfeiture.

(2) Before making any such order, the magistrate shall give to any person claiming or appearing to the magistrate to be the owner of such pearl oysters or pearls an opportunity of being heard, and if such person satisfies the magistrate that—

- (a) he is the owner of the pearl oysters or pearls; and
(b) he was not implicated in the commission of such offence, the magistrate shall order that such pearl oysters or pearls be delivered to such person.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Governor in his absolute discretion to give effect to any claim for relief from such forfeiture where such claim is established to his satisfaction on equitable, moral or other grounds.

15. Where two or more cultivation areas held by different licensees are contiguous to each other, and any proceeding is taken against any person for stealing pearl oysters from any such area, it shall be sufficient in alleging and proving the property and lawful possession, in such oysters, and the place from which they were stolen, to allege and prove that they were the property of and in the lawful possession of one or other of such licensees and were stolen from one or other of such contiguous areas. Contiguous areas.

16. (1) The Governor in Council may by regulation prescribe or provide for— Regulations.

- (a) all matters which by this Ordinance are required or permitted to be prescribed;
(b) the manner in which application for licences shall be made, and the forms to be used in connexion therewith;
(c) the fees to be paid for licences;

- (d) the payment of royalties to the Government, the method of calculation of the amount of such royalties and the manner and time of payment;
 - (e) the manner in which the boundaries of cultivation areas shall be marked;
 - (f) the duties of licensees;
 - (g) the making, construction and marking of rafts and the manner of anchoring them;
 - (h) inspection of rafts and cultivation area and any kind of oysters found there;
 - (i) the conservation of pearl oysters in the waters of the Colony and the promotion of economical methods of collection and cultivation of such oysters and the culture of pearls;
 - (j) the size and types of pearl oysters which may be collected or harvested or in which pearls may be cultured;
 - (k) returns and reports to be rendered and accounts, registers, books, records and plans to be kept by licensees, and the manner of rendering or keeping them;
 - (l) the disposal of any noxious or waste matter resulting from the collecting or harvesting of pearl oysters or the processing of pearls; and
 - (m) the safety, welfare, health and working conditions of divers.
- (2) Regulations made under this section may provide that any contravention of any such regulations shall be an offence and may prescribe penalties therefor not exceeding a fine of one thousand dollars and imprisonment for six months and in the case of a continuing offence a further daily penalty of a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

Saving.

(14 of 1953).

17. Except as provided in section 18, nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to the prejudice of any of the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1953.

18. Regulation 7 of the Merchant Shipping (Minor Fisheries) Regulations, 1953 is amended by—

- (a) deletion of the full stop at the end and substitution therefor of a colon;
- (b) insertion of the following proviso—
“Provided that this regulation shall not apply to the rearing of or fishing for pearl oysters within the meaning of the Pearl Culture (Control) Ordinance, 1958.”.

No. 30 OF 1958.

I assent.

Governor.

4th September, 1958.

An Ordinance further to amend the Magistrates Ordinance, Chapter 227.

[5th September, 1958.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hong Kong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Magistrates Short title.
(Amendment) Ordinance, 1958.

Amendment of
section 5.
(Cap. 227).

2. Section 5 of the Magistrates Ordinance (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance) is amended by the addition, after subsection (5), of the following new subsection—

“(6) Any appointment made under the provisions of subsection (1) may be given effect from a date anterior to that of the warrant by which it is made :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the discharge of any magisterial functions by any person so appointed before the date of the warrant or before the requirements of section 2 (Cap. 90). of the Promissory Oaths Ordinance have been fulfilled.”.

Amendment of
section 8.

3. Section 8 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion of subsection (2) and the substitution therefor of the following—

“(2) Every such summons—

(a) shall be served by a police officer, usher or other officer of a magistrate's court on the person to whom it is so directed—

(i) by delivering such summons to him personally; or

(ii) by leaving it with some person for him at his last or most usual place of abode; or

(b) alternatively, in respect of a person who commits an offence against any of the provisions of the enactments mentioned in the First Schedule, may be served by sending it by hand or by post to his residential or business address, and the police officer or other officer who serves, or effects service of, such summons shall attend before a magistrate at the time and place mentioned in the summons to depose, if necessary, to its service :

First

Provided always that nothing herein contained shall oblige a magistrate to issue a summons in any case where the defendant appears voluntarily or upon his recognizance or is in the custody of the police or charged on the charge sheet, and that it shall be lawful for a magistrate in any such event to hear and determine the case in all respects as if the defendant had appeared in answer to a summons.”.

4. Section 9 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and replaced by the following—

Repeal and replacement of
section 9.

“Issue of summons,
and warrant in case of disobedience to summons or in first instance under certain circumstances.
Rules,
Form 2.

9. (1) If a person served with a summons in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 8, does not appear before a magistrate at the time and place mentioned in the summons, and it is made to appear to the magistrate by oath that the summons was served in the manner prescribed, it shall be lawful for the magistrate to issue his warrant to apprehend the person so summoned, and to bring such person before him or another magistrate to answer to the said complaint or information and to be further dealt with according to law.

(2) If a person served with a summons in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 8, does not appear before a magistrate at the time and place mentioned in the summons, and it is made to appear to the magistrate by oath that the summons was served in the manner prescribed, the magistrate shall order that a fresh summons be served in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 8, on such person and if the person so served still does not appear before a magistrate at the time and place mentioned in the summons, and it is further made to appear to the magistrate by oath that the summons was served in the manner prescribed then it shall be lawful for the magistrate to issue his warrant to apprehend the person so summoned, and to bring such person before him or another magistrate to answer to the said complaint or information and to be further dealt with according to law.

Rules,
Form 2.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), on such information being laid as aforesaid, the magistrate before whom the information has been laid, may, on oath being made before him substantiating the matter of the information to his satisfaction, at any time instead of—

- (a) issuing his summons as prescribed in subsection (1) of section 8; or
- (b) ordering a fresh summons to be served in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 8 as prescribed in subsection (2),

Rules,
Form 3.

issue in the first instance or thereafter his warrant for apprehending the person against whom the information has been laid, and for bringing him before a magistrate to answer to the said information and to be further dealt with according to law.

(4) In any case where a summons is so issued and served in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 8, if, on the day and at the place appointed in and by the summons for the appearance of the party so summoned, such party fails to appear accordingly in obedience to the summons, then and in every such case, if it is made to appear to the magistrate by oath that the summons was served in the manner prescribed, it shall be lawful for the magistrate to proceed ex parte to the hearing of the complaint or information, and to adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such party had personally appeared before him in obedience to the summons.

(5) A summons shall be deemed not to have been served in the manner prescribed unless service was effected within what is deemed by a magistrate to be a reasonable time before the time appointed in the summons for appearing thereto.”.

5. The principal Ordinance is amended by the addition, after section 28, of the following new section—of new section 28A.
