GOVERNOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE

The Governor, Sir Murray MacLehose, today paid tribute to the St. John Ambulance Brigade whose members rendered almost 100,000 man hours last year at public occasions alone.

Speaking at the annual parade of the Brigade at the South China Athletic Association Stadium in Caroline Hill, Sir Murray said: "This demand for your services will increase, as people have more time to spend on recreation and leisure."

The following is the full text of the Governor's speech:

"It is a great honour for me today to review the St. John Ambulance Brigade for the first time.

"The Brigade has a world-wide reputation for dedicated service. In Hong Kong, its work has been of immense value to the community.

"I understand that the Brigade put in almost 100,000 man hours during 1972 at public occasions alone and this was out of the free time of members.

"This demand for your services will increase, as people have more time to spend on recreation and leisure.

"The strength of the Brigade, including the Cadets, is steadily increasing. The growth, together with the regular training you carry out each year, ensures that the Brigade is equipped to help those who need your services.

"You all have a most useful role to play in Hong Kong and I know that the work you do is appreciated by everyone.

"I congratulate you today on your excellent turn out and wish you all every success."
