REPORT ON THE SAMARITAN FUND 1.4.69—31.3.70

The Samaritan Fund is entirely dependent on voluntary donations which amounted to $45,103.85 during the year under review and receives no assistance whatsoever from public funds. The main purpose of the Fund is to give financial assistance to needy patients to meet the expenses of transportation to hospitals and clinics to enable them to obtain essential medical treatment, and to assist in the payment of rent and school fees etc. Small monetary grants are also made to assist needy patients for the purchase of clothing, toilet necessities and food for extra nourishment after discharge from hospital. A total of 3,929 needy patients were assisted during this financial year.

P. H. TENG,
Director of Medical & Health Services,
29th June, 1970.
