

examination. However, agreement was reached with the Institute to hold an Intermediate Examination in Hong Kong in May 1961, and, at the same time to assess the feasibility of holding such examinations regularly in the Colony in future years. The accordance of this facility by the Institute of Medical Laboratory Technology is gratefully acknowledged.

335. The Laboratory maintains an in-service course of training for Medical Laboratory Technicians which follows closely the curriculum of the Institute of Medical Laboratory Technology and which leads to a departmental examination necessary for advancement in the Service. The content of the course enables those suitably qualified to enter later for the Institute of Medical Laboratory Technology examination.

PHYSIOTHERAPY

336. In September 1960, a Physiotherapy Training School was established and the first course of instruction began. The School is accommodated in converted premises in the old Pathology Institute on Hong Kong Island and will remain there until the completion of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Kowloon when there will be a properly designed and equipped School of Physiotherapy.

337. The course is a full-time one and is conducted by qualified Physiotherapy Tutors. The syllabus follows completely that laid down by the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy in the United Kingdom.

OTHER FORMS OF DEPARTMENTAL TRAINING

338. Courses of training are held for Dispensers and Tuberculosis Visitors. These do not lead to a recognized qualification, but prepare those concerned for appointment to permanent posts on the Establishment after they have passed a departmental examination.

339. A preliminary training period of three months including lectures, discussions, visits of observation and practical work is arranged for Almoners who enter the Department with the basic qualifications of a University Degree and a recognized Certificate or Diploma in Social Studies.

340. Table 45 sets out the various categories of training undertaken departmentally during the year:

VI. DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

PLANNING UNIT

342. This unit is situated at Medical Headquarters and was established towards the end of 1959. It is staffed by a Principal Medical and Health Officer and a Hospital Secretary. The functions are two-fold, to prepare a comprehensive outline plan for the provision of medical facilities in Hong Kong in consultation with the relevant branches of the Department and thereafter to undertake, in close liaison with the Public Works Department, the detailed planning of each unit approved by the Finance Committee of the Legislative Council.

343. During 1957 an outline plan of development covering a period of fifteen years was proposed. This outline plan covered the minimum desirable but had to be related to building capacity and staff training. Accordingly, in 1959 a detailed plan for the five years 1960 to 1965 was prepared and submitted to Executive Council for approval in principle in June 1960. This approval was given, subject to the examination by Finance Committee of the detail of each individual project included within the five year segment. Following on the census in March 1961, planning will start on the detail of the programme proposed for 1966 to 1972.

344. The Planning Unit prepares draft schedules of accommodation, staff and equipment for each project which is to be included in the estimates. These schedules are then examined with the Colonial Secretariat before submission to the Public Works Sub-Committee and the Select Committee on Estimates. If approved for inclusion in the Estimates, detailed schedules are then prepared and authority sought for sketch plans to be drawn. Once sketch plans are approved, working drawings can be started as soon as the project concerned is allotted its priority. On the completion of a project the Planning Unit arranges for its initial equipment after which it is handed over to the relevant branch of the Department responsible for its maintenance.

345. A considerable proportion of the work of the unit is now concerned with the detail of the planning and equipment of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital which is expected to be completed in March 1963. Assistance has also been given to bodies engaged in the planning of Government subsidized institutions and to voluntary and other organizations engaged in hospital and clinic construction. In this way effort can be co-ordinated with the Government development plans so that the services provided by all agencies can be as evenly distributed as possible.

346. During the financial year 1960-61 sixteen projects were completed and handed over. These projects varied in size from the 1,000-bed mental hospital at Castle Peak to a clinic and maternity home of seven beds at the border town of Sha Tau Kok. Twenty four other building or extension projects were in hand at the end of the year of which six were under construction. These projects are detailed below.

sible for the initial organization and subsequent development of the Social Hygiene Service in Hong Kong. His quiet efficiency, kindly interest and high professional ability were admired and respected by his patients and colleagues alike.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

352. It is again a privilege and a pleasant duty to pay tribute to all who have been engaged in the work of the Department. The summation of individual effort is expressed in the volume of work achieved by a loyal and hard working team, under continuous heavy pressure. It has been due to the support and co-operation of other Departments of Government, particularly in connexion with development plans, that urgently needed buildings and extensions have become available. A special tribute is paid to the Architectural Branch of the Public Works Department which made possible the early completion and opening of the Castle Peak Hospital.

353. The assistance of the many missionary, voluntary and charitable welfare agencies who do so much for the sick and needy in Hong Kong makes a very large contribution to the medical and health services as a whole. Their devoted work and essential contribution are gratefully acknowledged.
