“old building” means any building other than a new building;

“permitted increases” shall mean such increases in or additions to the standard rent as could lawfully be made if the land possession of which has been taken in exercise of emergency powers had become or had continued to be the subject of a tenancy;

1st of December, 1941; or which was never let unfurnished prior to possession thereof being taken in exercise of emergency powers “standard rent” shall mean such a rate of rent as would have constituted a fair rent for the building if let unfurnished immediately before the 1st of December, 1941.

User determined in accordance with this paragraph is hereinafter referred to as the “determining user”.

(4) For the purposes of determining the standard rent any part of an old building which was in fact the subject of a separate letting or in separate occupation immediately prior to possession thereof being taken in exercise of emergency powers shall be treated as constituting separate premises and paragraph (3) of this regulation shall have effect accordingly.

(6) Nothing herein contained shall confer any jurisdiction upon a Tenancy Tribunal and whenever it becomes necessary for the purposes of these regulations or of the principal regulations to ascertain any standard rent or any permitted increase or generally to determine the compensation payable by virtue of these regulations and the principal regulations the same shall in default of agreement be determined by a tribunal appointed under regulation 9 of the principal regulations.

(ii) there shall not, by virtue of sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, be payable in respect of damage to any land a sum greater than the value of the land at the time when possession thereof was taken in the exercise of emergency powers, no account being taken of any appreciation in the value thereof after the designated date.”;

(b) Paragraphs (6) and (7) shall be deemed to have been repealed and replaced by the following—
